Population 27,408: census paints City by numbers

The annual census can produce a paint-by-numbers portrait of a city and its inhabitants. According to statistics culled from the 1978 municipal census, the average citizen of St. Albert is between the age of 24 and 45. He or she is more likely to live in Grandin Park than any other area as this district tops the population figures at 8,309. His or her house will more than likely be a single family dwelling, as that housing mode continues to dominate the housing mix, comprising 84% of all dwellings. This dwelling will house an average of 3.66 persons. If employed, our average citizen will probably hold a full time job, as does 76% of the employed populace.

The 50-page census report is full of intriguing little items. The city's population as of June 1, 1978 is 27,408, having risen by 1,865 from the same time in 1977, an increase of 7.3%. Lacombe Park showed the greatest increase of all the neighborhoods, with 870 people moving in since 1977, putting the Lacombe Park population at 5,002. This area is second only to Grandin Park in population. The Mission Park and Sturgeon Heights neighborhoods showed minor population decreases.

In perusing the figures, some trends are evident. Like other municipalities in Canada, St. Albert's population is aging. The number of city children in the 0-14 year bracket is declining. However, this age group is still over-represented here when compared to the provincial populace. In St. Albert 32% of the population falls into this group, compared with 27% of the provincial population. St. Albert still has a less-than-average number of 15-24 year olds when compared to the province, with Alberta having 20% of people in this age group as opposed to 16% in St. Albert. However, this percentage difference is narrowing, due to a definite increase in the 15-19 year age group. When taken with the decline in the percentage from 0-14 years, it can be seen that the city's population is aging.

St. Albert is also underrepresented in the 45-65 year age group, which comprises 14% of the city's population as opposed to 25% in the province. The city has a comparatively small number of citizens in the over 65 group, with 2.1% of the population in this group as opposed to 7.6% of the provincial population. Only 480 retired people live in St. Albert.

The figures show an increase in the number of residents finding work in St. Albert. Twenty-one percent or 2,397 members of the employed labour force works in St. Albert. Residents were shown to be more likely to find work in St. Albert after they have lived here for four years. Of the jobs offered in St. Albert, 25 percent will be taken by residents of Edmonton and Morinville. At census time, 217 people were unemployed, of which 132 were male and 82 female.

Local speeders pay the price

Lowered speed limits on the St. Albert Trail seem to have little effect on some local speed demons. St. Albert RCMP report they are still tagging speeders on the St. Albert Trail and around the city in general. Drivers are reminded that the speed limit on the Trail is 70 km/h or 43.5 mph. Around the city of St. Albert, the limit is 50 km/h or 31.1 mph.

With the advent of school days, drivers must again gear down for influx of little people on city streets. The local detachment of the RCMP will be setting up radar operations around city schools. School zones traffic regulations are in effect from 8 - 9:30 a.m., 11:30 - 1:30 p.m. and 3 - 4:30 p.m. School zone speeds are 30 km/h or 18.6 mph.

RCMP also report that some drivers are forgetting or ignoring speed limits in playground areas. In these areas the speed limit is 30 km/h or 18.6 mph and are in effect from 8:30 a.m. until one hour after sunset. These playgrounds are marked and speed limits are posted.

Hi There

A man walked into the Gazette office last week with three of these objects. With a mop for hair and a little flow pen artistry can you tell what the objects are? Turn to page eight for the answer.

Usher property improperly rezoned

SAC will fight all the way

A ruling by the Alberta Supreme Court has determined that the City of St. Albert acted illegally in rezoning a portion of land bordering the west side of Highway 2 immediately south of the United Church.

The city had rezoned the land commercial from institutional to accommodate a professional building on what is known as the Usher property. St. Albert's General Plan, passed by city council September 6, 1977, designated the land as institutional. The Sturgeon Action Committee (SAC) advised council before the rezoning that any zoning action would be ultravires unless the General Plan was amended but council went ahead and approved second and third readings. Robert Haight of the SAC told the Gazette that this action by council forced SAC to take the matter to court.

Following the Alberta Supreme Court decision the city has 'abandoned' the case according to St. Albert Mayor Ron Harvey. The city will now take an amendment to reclassify the land back to the public and council.

City Manager Bob Byron said the matter will come before council September 5 at which time a public hearing will be set if council so chooses. The hearing would then take place in two weeks time or approximately September 18.

Robert Haight of SAC will also appear before council on September 5.

He told the Gazette he had advised the city manager

SAC would fight each issue of development along highway 2. He said the city would accept only one expert opinion. Please turn to page 2

Classes delayed one week at W.D. Cuts School

Registration for the William D. Cuts School will be during the afternoon of Thursday, August 31, 1978 from 1:30 to 3:30 in the gymnasium of Ronald Harvey School. Parents and/or students may register at any time between the hours of 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Detailed information on this registration and for other schools in the St. Albert P.S.S.D. No. 6 has been published in the Gazette on August 16 and 23. Please remember to bring your Alberta Health Number.

Classes for students will begin at 8:27 a.m. on Monday, September 11, 1978 in the new building. The contractor has made remarkable progress since construction began in November, 1977 and has the building at a stage where furniture and equipment is being delivered and assembled this week.

Teachers, custodial staff and construction workers will require next week to make final preparations for classes to begin. The late notice for students and parents regarding the loss of four school days comes after much effort was made to open school on time and the school district feels fortunate that the disruptions were not much more extensive.

Further information can be obtained by telephoning District Office at 458-2060.

What's happening ?

Misty stopped by the Gazette office last night to check up on the staff and make sure the paper was going together all right. We could always use a little 'horse sense' around the office but, 17 year old owner Tracy Gillan tells us Misty's having a little trouble with his typing. It seems he can't get the fingering down pat.

Provincial offers new prizes

Major changes to the Provincial Lottery have been announced by the Western Canada Lottery Foundation.

Starting with the September tickets going on sale early next week, the $5 Provincial will offer 10 grand prizes of $1 million (five per draw) rather than six (three per draw). Each ticket is valid for two consecutive draws.

In addition, each ticket will carry a special feature giving the ticket holder the opportunity to win an 'on the spot' instant prize.

A new scratch-off feature has been added to each Provincial ticket. With this feature, a ticket holder could win, instant prizes of $100, $20, or $10 or a free ticket. Cash prizes may be redeemed at participating retailers and all branches of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in Western Canada. Free tickets can be instantly redeemed from any retailer. Tickets will still be good for two consecutive monthly draws.

This announcement followed a news release last month by Loto Quebec that Quebec would join the Provincial lottery. That province's participation will commence now, for the September 24 draw.

In addition to the Western Canadian provinces and Quebec, Provincial lottery tickets are also sold in Ontario. Proceeds from the sale of tickets in each of the western provinces, remain in that province to benefit a wide range of community projects.

ion (on the development of Highway 2) and that was their (the city's) opinion. He said SAC felt the city should have two expert opinions on development of the highway and that if the city were not willing to pay for a second opinion then SAC would.

When asked how SAC would react to tonight's public hearing (in the United Church basement - 7:30 p.m.) regarding a proposed 20 acre development bordered by Highway 2 and Grandin Road, Mr. Haight said he felt the attempt to gather public input before final plans are set has a commendable course of action and that SAC would be represented at the hearing.

Nostalgia trip for train buffs

Rides on an authentic steam-hauled train will again be offered at the Alberta Pioneer Railway this coming long weekend, September 2, 3 and 4. Hourly from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m., the train will leave the Railway's station, located northeast of Edmonton, with a vintage 1913 C.N.R. steam engine pulling a 1915 smoker-baggage coach.

The museum can be reached by turning left off highway 15 north at the Oliver Rd. (170th Ave.) for one block and then right for five miles.

Inside the former Canadian Northern Railway - St. Albert station visitors can view displays of railway equipment, artifacts and dining car china. Several of the museum's large collection of railway cars will also be on display.

The Alberta Pioneer Railway is owned and operated by the non-profit Alberta Pioneer Railway Association. Admission to the Railway is free. The museum complex is operated by volunteer labour and supported by public donations and sales of light refreshments and books during these long weekends.

Moonies not soliciting here

Alberta would appear to be a target area for members of the Unification Church, better known as the Moonies. According to newspaper reports from other municipalities in the province, The Moonies have been busy recently, soliciting donations door to door. It has been reported that the group proposes to establish an indoctrination camp near Sundre, Alberta. To ascertain if Rev. Sung Yung Moon's devotees were operating in the St. Albert area, the Gazette talked to Bylaw Enforcement Officer Stan Mill.

Mr. Mill made it plain that anyone wishing to solicit donations in the city is subject to a stringent licence bylaw, set out by the municipality. The person must also hold a province of Alberta licence. Faith healers and promoters of health cults must post a $1,000 bond and be certified by the provincial department of Consumer and Corporate Affairs.

In discussing the possibility of the Moonies canvassing St. Albert, Mr. Mill said he did not know of any soliciting being carried out here by the Unification Church, and that any such group would have to go through his office to obtain the necessary licence. He pointed out that there are several vendors of flowers in town, but said that these people represent a legitimate accredited charitable organization which assists underprivileged young adults.

Under the terms of the bylaw, anyone caught in the act of soliciting donations without a city licence can be 'escorted' to the city limits. No further action can be taken unless money changes hands.

Should any St. Albert resident be approached by someone requesting a donation, that resident should ask to see proper identification or a licence. If no such identification is forthcoming, contact Stan Mill at 459-6601 extension 61.

Seminar to examine epilepsy treatment

Epilepsy -- even today, this disease is obscured by myth and misunderstanding. Due to a general reluctance to discuss it many medieval attitudes have lingered on in the present. To further enlighten the public and those interested in the nature and treatment of epilepsy a seminar will be held in Edmonton, September 15-16 at the Glenrose Hospital Auditorium, 10230 - 111 Avenue.

The theme of the seminar is to be "Total Patient Care," moderated by Dr. A. F. Wilson. Dr. Wilson is the clinical director of Adult Rehabilitation Unit at the Glenrose Hospital, and alternate chief of medicine at the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

He is also president of the Alberta Neurological Society.

On September 15, the first day of the seminar, Dr. Grant McPhail, executive director of the Glenrose Hospital will make the introductory address. Dr. Don Hepburn will also speak, on the subject of Education of Children with Epilepsy. Dr. Hepburn is a lecturer in special education at the University of Alberta.

The following day, Dr. Yngve Loyning of the Statens Senter for Epilepsi, Sandvika, will address the seminar on comprehensive care. At present, care for epileptic patients is far from ideal. Facilities are generally too scattered to permit comprehensive care for many patients. This session of the seminar will be aimed at indicating the many facets of patient care, so that programs can be developed allowing epileptics to enjoy a full life. This presentation will be followed by Dr. Donald McLean, director of the Division of Neurology and of the EEG Laboratory at the University of Alberta. Dr. McLean will speak on the EEG. Dr. Don Shipp, of Hansen Laboratories in Edmonton will address the seminar on Anti-convulsant Blood Serum Levels. Other presentations will examine Driving and Epilepsy and Employment and Epilepsy.

For further information, contact the Edmonton Epilepsy Association 422-2710, 422-4034 or 424-6519.

Summer Games '79

track facilities report studied

Preparations for the 1979 Summer Games to be held in St. Albert are already rolling and the Board of Directors for the games recently received a track and field facilities report. They will study the document and then make their recommendation to council.

The report examines four potential sites for track and field events. These include the existing track between Vincent J. Maloney and Sir Alexander Mackenzie schools; the Salisbury playground; St. Albert High School and the Lorne Akins school grounds.

Amalgamated Recreation

Engineers and Network Associates Ltd. are the study group involved in making the report. The firm has had experience studying facilities for the 1974 Commonwealth Games in New Zealand, the 1974 Asian Games in Iran, the 1973 Canada Games in New Westminster, B.C., the 1975 Western Canada Games in Regina and the 1975 Alberta Summer Games in Red Deer.

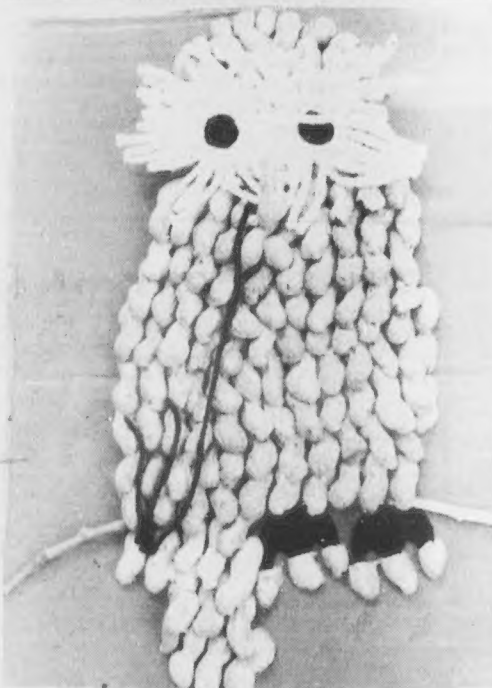

In a recent committee of the whole meeting, aldermen were told that the city had commissioned the report before the Board of Directors was operational, in order that work could begin this fall.

New stamp honours foundress of Grey Nuns

On September 21, 1978, Canada Post will issue a commemorative postage stamp honouring Mere Marguerite d'Youville, who founded the Sisters of Charity, called the Grey Nuns.

The general colour scheme is blue and gold and the design features Mere Marguerite d'Youville praying while, in the background, the poor of Montreal help themselves from barrels of flour.

This design was inspired by an incident from Mere d'Youville's life when, during a famine in Montreal in 1760, food for the poor mysteriously appeared in the refectory of the Sisters of Charity.

A total of 28,400,000 of the 14-cent stamps will be printed.

"The strong woman of Canada" ... "A woman of genius," are among the tributes that have been paid to Mere Marguerite d'Youville, foundress of the Grey Nuns religious order. Noted for her resourcefulness and astute business sense, Mere d'Youville developed and managed her community with an expertise that was the envy on her male contemporaries. Even more outstanding were her piety and devotion to the poor - virtues which became her strength in the face of the hardship and adversity that were to mark her life.

It was not a future one would have predicted for Marie Marguerite Dufrost de Lajemmerais when she was born into one of the best families of New France on October 15, 1701, at Varannes. However, the childhood of poverty she endured after her father's death was followed by a short and ill-fated marriage to a neglectful spend-thrift who trafficked in contraband furs and alcohol. When Francois d'Youville died, Marguerite and her two sons were left debt-ridden and in social disgrace.

The trials of those early years led the already pious Marguerite to seek solace in religion and good works, and in 1737 she founded a small community of companions to minister to the poor and sick of the colony.

Not long after, the little band became the centre of controversy when, because of her proven administrative abilities, Marguerite was chosen to restore Montreal's foundering general hospital. Opponents to the restoration plan sought to discredit Marguerite and her group by accusing them of all sorts of degenerate activities, including personal drunkenness. They were nicknamed "les socurs grises," a pun on the word, which can mean either grey or drunk. (The sisters eventually dignified this once unfortunate title by adopting grey habits, and so became respectfully known as the Grey Nuns.)

"Mere d'Youville's compassion was such that she set about caring for all the wretched, the poor, the old and the abandoned. She never turned anyone away," said the Postmaster General in making the announcement.

"That spirit lives among her followers today, and many troubled people continue to think first of the Grey Nuns when they seek help and comfort."

Dutch prefer bicycle

The 13.9 million population of the Netherlands own, between them, 9.5 million bicycles. Not bad, when you eliminate the very young and perhaps some of the very old. Canadians may be surprised to learn that 42 percent of all Dutch people between the ages of 15 and 74 ride a bicycle almost daily.

The company was incorporated recently for the purpose of manufacturing and marketing patented products of a pharmaceutical nature.

The directors of the company include Dr. Raymond Lemieux, professor of chemistry, University of Alberta; and Dr. Harry E. Gunning, president of the University of Alberta.

The Government of Alberta was involved in the incorporation process to the extent that it acted as a guarantor of $2 million in loans provided by a chartered bank to Chembiomed Ltd. The company is wholly owned by the University of Alberta.

Chembiomed Ltd. is located on the 5th floor of the university's Chemistry West Building. The company will remain on campus for the next two years and then were relocated, likely in Edmonton.

Chembiomed Ltd. is the result of discoveries made by Dr. Lemieux and his research group. Their work was based on the preparation for the first time of immuno-absorbents and artificial antigens and facilitates the improvement of existing supplies of blood typing reagents and the development of blood typing reagents which are needed but are not presently available.

According to the Chembiomed directors, the discoveries mean that it will be possible to save large amounts of human blood by diverting significant quantities to life-sustaining blood products rather than to diagnosis, as is now the case.

In addition, they say the discoveries will make it possible to minimize adverse blood transfusion reactions which occur through the present lack of ability to determine accurately subgroupings of blood types and impurities in the blood sera.

The University of Alberta became involved in Chembiomed Ltd. to help ensure that a budding pharmaceutical industry will remain in Alberta rather than leaving the province, and perhaps even the country.

CONSUMER COMMENT

From Consumer & Corporate Affairs Canada

Best Before Date

Consumers, are you aware of the "best before" date which can help you make better food shopping decisions? "Best before" dates are placed on various food products in accordance with the requirements of Consumer and Corporate Affairs Canada. These dates are intended to serve as an additional guide of freshness for the consumer. Here are a few more facts about "best before" dating.

Most processor-prepackaged consumer products that have a durable life of 90 days or less, must carry a "best before" date. The term "best before" must appear in both French and English with the durable life date, unless a clear explanation of the significance of the durable life date appears in English and French elsewhere on the label. The first two letters of the date indicate the month, such as FE for February, MR for March and AL for April, and the figures following indicate the date of the month from 01 to 31. The year may also be shown before the month, either by four numbers or by the last two numbers of the year.

If the product must be stored at other than room temperature, special storage instructions in both official languages must appear on the label.

Products which are exceptions to the "best before" legislation include butter, fresh fruits and vegetables. Also, "best before" dating is not mandatory on fresh meat, fish and poultry packaged at the retail level. However, these products, if they do not carry a "best before" date, must show the date they were packaged, and a sign near the meat counter must provide storage instructions and durable life information.

Consumers should remember that the "best before" date is not an expiry date. Rather, it is the date up to which the consumer can expect a particular product to retain its original quality, under good handling conditions. After this date, the product will have passed its peak of freshness, but it may still be edible.

The "best before" date is only valid if the product has been stored at all times under the conditions specified on the label. Consumers must take normal care with perishable goods, particularly after a package has been opened. "Best before" dating provides the information necessary to let consumers know whether the packaged food they purchase is fresh. You should take advantage of this indicator of product freshness to make informed choices in the market-place.

SPECIAL THANKS TO WEBB EXPOS

We hear a lot these days about the young people being lazy, unreliable and spoiled. They allegedly lack manners, are poor sports and are in poor physical condition.

Some of this may be true for some youngsters, but there are 14 young people who live right here in St. Albert that cannot be accused of any of the above.

These are the members of the Webb Hardware Expos Mosquito "A" Baseball Team. Namely they are: Mark Sanche, Matt Pesklewis, Jim Romeril, Brad Baird, Joel Borle, Jason Cunningham, Trent Rees, Jay McMartin, Darryl LaBuick, Kevin Welch, David Ross, Curt Goeson, Bryce Matoga and Pat Wheatley.

Most of this group of 10 and 11 year olds, started the baseball year last February in the Leo Nickerson gymnasium, then played two months of league baseball, spent a week at baseball school, journeyed to Barrhead, Stettler and Drayton Valley for tournament and exhibition games, practised at least twice a week all year, won the Zone 5 Championship, and finished the year in Peace River on August 20 playing in the final game for the provincial championship.

Although we did not win the provincials (losing 3-2 in 3 extra innings), these boys won for themselves the admiration and gratitude of everyone who watched them all year. There was no swearing, temper tantrums, blaming of others or giving up at anytime. We could learn from these kids how to behave under pressure, how to act when winning, how to accept times of great difficulty and disappointment.

This great season of baseball would not have been possible, however, were it not for people like Bill Webb who sponsored the team, Don Baird and Lorne Ross who assisted with the coaching, Jerry Welch our statistician, Neil Goeson who co-ordinated travel, accommodation and transportation and Darlene Ross our scorekeeper.

A special thanks to all the parents who cheered at games, worked on diamonds, supplied goodies for the team and supported our efforts and decisions this year. Without parental support, it is impossible to coach a baseball team.

Thank you to the St. Albert Minor Baseball Association for supplying equipment, baseballs and other expendables, and to Webb Hardware for the uniforms and jackets.

As coach of this memorable group of people, I want to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to each of you. 1978 has been a most memorable year for me. It was an honor to coach such a team, and to work with such a great group of people.

A knowledge of nature

Last of a three-part series

People today are flocking to the outdoors in greater numbers than ever. Yet many come unprepared to find the adventure which nature holds. An appreciation of natural life is a continuing source of interest and enjoyment. It may also provide a bulwark against the threatened destruction of mankind ...

THE LITTLE THINGS OF LIFE ARE AS INTERESTING AS THE BIG ONES

In the natural world, things are often not as they appear. If one sees a couple of squirrels scurrying about, it looks as if they are merely frolicking. But there could be a story behind it. Squirrels have a streak of larceny and steal from one another's food stores. When one squirrel chases another up and down a tree, there is a good chance that the pursuer has caught the pursued burglarizing his stock of groceries, and is going after him with blood in his eye. It is usually as harmless as an animated cartoon, however. The burglar is seldom caught.

The little things in nature are every bit as interesting as the bigger ones. A tiny dragonfly nymph in a puddle will gorge itself at a rate of a thousand insect eggs an hour. It is a model of speed and efficiency, employing jet propulsion to dart about after its quarry. The nymph draws water through a vent in its tail, then expels it to shoot forward. At the same time it unlimbers a sinister-looking hinged device with pinchers at the end to grasp its prey and stuff it into its mouth.

MAN MAY ONLY EXPAND HIS PLACE IN CREATION AT HIS OWN RISK

Assuming that it survives the attentions of its many predators, the nymph will grow up to become the scourge of flies and mosquitos. A dragonfly is a superbly-equipped hunter, hovering like a helicopter on its double wings and gobbling up all the smaller flying insects that come within reach of its long grasping "arms." It has a straightforward digestive tract which enables it to eat fantastic numbers of other insects. One is reported to have been found with more than a hundred mosquitos in its mouth.

Nature, then, holds few dull moments for those who get to know it. For 26 months in the mid-1840s a man named Henry David Thoreau lived on the edge of a New England pond. He was an educated man in conventional terms, but he remarked at Harvard University, where he had studied, that it "taught all the branches but none of the roots." His real education, he felt, came from the time he spent at the pond studying nature. "I went to the woods," he explained, "because I wished to live deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life, and to see if I could not learn what it had to teach, and not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived."

He learned a great deal, which he passed on to posterity in his masterpiece, Walden; or, Life in the Woods. The surprising thing about Walden Pond was that it was only two miles from the centre of the town of Concord, Massachusetts. Thoreau felt no need to go to the unexplored wilderness to find the lessons in life which nature has to teach. Within earshot of the church bells of Concord, there was nothing very exotic. His food for thought came from considering the ways of worms and water bugs, of squirrels and chickadees. He filled several pages of his book with his observations of a battle between two types of ants.

Walden was Thoreau's theatre, his art gallery, his classroom. It held his interest constantly; yet, if he had not worked at gaining a knowledge of his natural neighbours, he might have hated the place. If he had not turned over the occasional log to see what was underneath, or not known one bird from another, he would never have furthered his understanding of the human condition. As it was, he came away knowing the great secret of life on earth, that it is one and indivisible. In the "restless, nervous, bustling, trivial Nineteenth Century" in which he lived, he showed a rare awareness of the fact that man could only expand his place in creation at his own risk.

That century has now been succeeded by another in which human transgressions against the natural order have been pushed close to the point of self-destruction. It has become a plain matter of survival for man to learn the limitations of his role in the world. We cannot all be Thoreaus; but there should be a little of the Thoreau in all of us if we are to make the earth safe for coming generations. People who know about nature know about the thread that connects all living matter. And they know, too, just how delicate and irreparable that thread can be.

Aircraft makers in U.S. step up media campaigns

From the Globe & Mail

There are two ways of looking at the acceleration of advertising by U.S. aircraft manufacturers vying for a $2.3 billion contract to supply fighter aircraft for the Canadian Armed Forces.

All the companies are advertising but the campaigns of three - McDonnell Douglas Corp., Northrop Corp. and Grumman Corp. - are being stepped up in the consumer media, both newspapers and magazines.

An executive with J. Walter Thompson Co. Ltd. of Montreal, which places the advertising for McDonnell Douglas, said the campaigns "are heating up because some big decisions are coming."

The federal government is expected to announce a short list of two or three aircraft in September. McDonnell Douglas obviously expects at least one of its two entries in the competition will be on it because the agency said it has reserved space for the rest of the year.

Which raises the question: Are McDonnell Douglas, Northrop and Grumman accelerating their consumer advertising because they are confident they will be on the short list, or because they are worried they will not be?

And are General Dynamics Corp. and the Panavia Consortium staying out of consumer publications because they feel secure, or because they consider advertising pointless?

Northrop has been the most visible advertiser so far with regular quarter-page ads in daily newspapers in all the major markets and full pages in a handful of consumer, trade and special interest publications. Its agency is the Los Angeles office of Needham, Harper and Steers.

Grumman's ads, from Creamer Lois FSR in New York, are being seen with increasing frequency. Together, the three companies have spent at least $250,000 on advertising this year.

The ads in consumer publications have little to do with the military characteristics of aircraft, instead concentrating on how the companies are prepared to provide jobs and work for Canadian industry if they are successful bidders. This aspect of the contract, the "offset" work for Canadian companies, will be an important consideration in the eventual award.

Alberta Chamber to emphasize education and small business

At a combined executive and board of directors meeting of the Alberta Chamber of Commerce held in Athabasca, it was decided that the areas of education and small business would take a priority in the organizations September meeting with cabinet.

Concern was also expressed by the smaller chambers, both through their individual presentations to this summer's visiting cabinet tour, and by representatives at the meeting, for the present state of medical services in some communities.

In addition, many communities are expressing a need for more effective means by which to attract industries to locate in smaller centres.

The Alberta Chamber over the next month will be attempting to pull together, from over 100 member chambers, some consensus of opinion for possible discussion with Premier Lougheed and his ministers.

Present at the Athabasca meeting were members representing some 16 Chambers from the northern parts of Alberta. President of the organization, Mr. Walter Dingle, emphasized that future meetings would continue to be held in locations around the province enabling as many members and observers as possible to participate.

Can you make your phone follow you around?

Yes—and more, if your phone number starts with 458.

We call it "Call Forwarding". It's just one of AGT's special Custom Calling services available to single line service customers whose phone numbers start with 458. Which of these four services would be more useful to you?

Call forwarding

Where you go—your phone calls follow in your local calling area.

Call Forwarding automatically transfers your calls to any other seven-digit number in your local calling area. Before you go out, just dial a code plus the number where you can be reached. Your phone calls will follow you there—and your phone can still be used for outgoing calls.

Call waiting

Avoid busy signals for your friends or business contacts.

Call Waiting—invaluable if you have a "heavy traffic" phone at your home or office. An intermittent tone lets you know there's another caller waiting to speak to you. You can hold the party you're talking to while you answer a second call.

Speed calling

Call your most important numbers by dialing just one or two digits.

Speed Calling lets you choose up to thirty of your most frequently-called local and long distance numbers, and contact them by dialing only one or two digits. You can change numbers anytime—just dial an activating code and "program in" the new numbers.

Three-way calling

Three can talk as easily as two!

Add a third phone to any established call for three-way conversations. Three-Way Calling is the speedy, efficient way to make important business or family decisions. You can "firm up" arrangements that might otherwise require several phone calls.

For information on Custom Calling services and rates visit phoneCentre in Grandin Shoppers Park.

Custom Calling services are not available for party line or switchboard service.

Giant puttfball

Those of you who receive the Edmonton Sun may have noticed a photo of a seven pound puttfball last week. Well it doesn't compare to the one found by Don England at the Old Ryan farm (Manor Estates). Don actually found three of the monsters. The one pictured here topped the scales at 36 pounds and the others weighed in at 16 and 8 pounds. He tells us they are edible and actually taste similar to mushrooms when fried in butter.

September is Kidney Month

A Residential Solicitation for funds will be carried out by canvassers for the Kidney Foundation, from September 4 - 15, 1978 in Edmonton, Leduc, Sherwood Park and St. Albert.

The Chairman of this project is Miss Pauline McCormick, a nurse from the Renal Unit of the University Hospital.

Making the first donation will be the Honourable Gordon T. Miniely, Minister of Hospitals and Medical Care, who is Honorary Chairman of Kidney Month.

The funds will be directed to medical research into all aspects of kidney disease, in the hope and expectation that better methods of prevention, or cure, will be possible, so that people afflicted with this major medical problem will no longer face a life dependent on a dialysis machine or a kidney transplant.

FALL PROGRAMMING

Countdown to Fall programming is on in the Department. The brochures outlining the Community Services and Further Education Council's Fall programming is set to be delivered September 5, 6 and 7 in the city and rural routes.

You will note in the brochure that there will be a new registration procedure when registrants will register in person for the courses that they are interested in during our registration "rally" September 16 and 17.

While you are waiting in line there will be many things going on about you to help pass the time and give registrants an insight to what some of the various courses entail.

Watch for further information in this column.

MAJORETTE CORPS

This fall the Community Services Department will be promoting the formation of a majorette corps in the city. The corps will be open to girls aged seven years and up.

To help get the program started we require volunteers who have had experience of this nature to come forward and assist us, either by helping to organize or if you have "twirled the old baton" and want to show your stuff now is the chance. Call the Community Services Department 459-6601 and leave your name and telephone number.

TENNIS

A new method of rotation is now in effect on all courts. New signs have been posted saying 0, 15, 30 and 45 and indicate the times the players presently on the court must vacate the court for anyone waiting. If you are playing on the zero court you must move off on the hour; on the 15 court at quarter after the hour; the 30 court half past the hour; and 45 court quarter to the hour. Providing you begin at the time indicated on the court you will have court use for one hour. When it is time to vacate your court, you may wish to sit for the next available court.

Tag holders may still reserve courts and if you are booking on the hour, you will be booked on to the zero court. If booking on the half hour, the 30 court.

In the event of a conflict between the new rotation system and a court booking, the court booking takes precedence. When waiting for a court, sit quietly on the bench inside beside the court that would first become vacant.

Kitchen energy conservation

In these days of rising prices and diminishing energy supplies most Canadians are interested in saving both money and energy.

Agriculture Canada's food advisory division is also concerned about conserving electricity. The division's food consultants and technicians conducted tests to compare the amounts of electricity required for cooking, using an electric range and several small electrical appliances. Their advice

includes the following:
- use a toaster to toast
bread, not the broiler of the oven;

use an electric kettle to boil water, rather than a range-top element;

use pots that fit the
element and have tight fitting lids, and

turn off appliances as soon as cooking is completed.

Southgate features week for kids

"Let Kids Be Kids." A child-oriented festival of fun including games, contests, give-aways, prizes and much more is happening at Southgate Shopping Centre from August 29 through to September 2 in honor of the thousands of young people in and around Edmonton, who take delight in the simple joys of childhood.

Peek into the realm of a child's imagination, as a giant cardboard playground becomes a thrilling adventure into outer space, a spooky hideaway ... where hide-and-seek can last all day! Dig into our dress-up trunk and play "Let's Pretend" and pose for a funny picture in your "pretend" outfit.

"Who are the people in your neighbourhood?" Be introduced to many of the people who help service our communities. Shake hand with a fireman, a police sergeant, a milkman, a mailman, a bus driver and more. Discover something new about stamp collecting, safety tips and nutrition.

Play follow the leader in a fashion parade, enter a coloring contest, see familiar mechanical figures at work and much, much more. It's all at Southgate for a last carefree week of freedom before school starts again!

Teen Scene

By Brian Leonard
Youth Worker
East Side Teens first meeting of the fall will be Monday, September 11, 8:30 at Vital Grandin. One of the first items on this year's agenda will be a long awaited camping trip.

Any other teen groups

wishing facilities for meetings or gym programs should call me as soon as possible to ensure getting the location and time slot you wish.

The Perron and Akinsdale Arenas are open for another season and the City is looking for teen monitors to assist arena staff in supervision. Responsible teens looking for leadership experience and other benefits are asked to call me at 459-6601, extension 77.

Thanks to the Freeflight Skateboard team for a fine demonstration last Wednesday. We all learned a few tricks as well as some safety tips.

This is the last week to get out and enjoy the Hideout and Hotspot programs - both end August 31. I will be evaluating both programs this week and would appreciate any comments or sugestions that could make the program better next year. So long Summer.

Hideout Column

By Sharon Beale
Although I wasn't around last week, I understand the disco that was held on August 25 went pretty well. Very special thanks go out to Bobby and Music Machine for giving us a needed freebie. You tell 'em Bobbie!

The summer season closes on Thursday the 31st. The Teen Centre executive and the teens who inhabit the Hideout (literally), want to thank Isabel, Jeanie, Helen and Wanda (our summer staff) for attempting to turn St. Albert's teens into regular people instead of the bunch of insane teens they really are! I think we need a miracle. God, are you listening? Actually we want to thank them for their help. Hope you had a good time doing it.

Our winter hours start tentatively September 8 (watch for further notice). Between August 30 and September 8, the Centre will be closed for general repairs and clean-up. Anyone who wants to pitch in, please contact Brian Leonard at 459-6601 or Sharon at 459-3413. During the winter the Hideout will be open Friday and Saturday nights, 7 to midnight and during school lunch hours from 11:20 - 12:05.

Parents looking for their teens will probably find them hiding under our pool tables desperately trying to keep out of the teachers reach. Have a good time St. Albert!

More visual impact in new school bus sign

The new school bus sign for Alberta roads was designed to have greater impact on motorists than the sign used for the past number of years.

In seminars conducted during the past two years, school bus operators said the most serious safety hazard they encountered was the illegal passing of school buses stopped to load or discharge students.

Officials with the Transportation Safety Branch of Alberta Transportation believe the combination of symbols and words on the new sign will be more effective in attracting motorists' attention. The sign is also designed to convey more clearly what the law says about not passing a school bus when its alternate red lights are flashing.

Students are shown leaving a school bus that has its red lights in operation. Above the symbol are the words "Lights Flashing" and below "Do Not Pass."

ACCESS TV examines Learning Disabilities

"I watched my small son set off, jauntily, on his great adventure, well-scrubbed and polished, ready for his first day of school. I had no sense of foreboding; no inkling of the heartache, the frustration, the futile searching that lay in the years ahead."

For most children, that first day of school is an adventure eagerly anticipated, but for about 10 to 15 percent of those children, the adventure becomes a nightmare. Those unfortunate children are among the 63,000 schoolage Albertans estimated to be suffering from some form of "learning disability." Basic teaching techniques that work with normal children simply don't work with children who have learning disabilities.

ACCESS Alberta, in cooperation with the Alberta Association for Children with Learning Disabilities, is producing a series of television and radio programs designed to create an awareness of the problem in both parents and teachers, and to offer help to adults who must help the child cope. NO TIME TO LOSE will outline the clues to identification of learning disabilities, and will suggest ways that the children and parents can be helped.

A four-person committee of specialists - Isabelle Reid, executive secretary of the Edmonton Association for Children with Learning Disabilities; Betty Finch, reading specialist with the Edmonton Public School Board; Gayle James, professor in the Faculty of Social Welfare at the University of Calgary; and Chris Brown, special education teacher at Salisbury Composite High School in Edmonton -- aided in the development of the programs. ACCESS project co-ordinator is Ellen Watt, and the ACCESS producer is Richard Ewen.

No Time To Lose will be telecast on CFRN-TV Edmonton, CFAC-TV Calgary, CJOE-TV Lethbridge, CITL-TV Lloydminster, and CF-CN-TV Medicine Hat. The phone-in programs immediately following will invite participation on ACCESS Radio CKUA at 580 on the AM Dial; and on the FM dial at Stereo 94 Calgary, Stereo 95 Edmonton, Stereo 97 Peace River, Stereo 97 Medicine Hat, Stereo 99 Lethbridge, and Stereo 101 Grande Prairie.

The quoted passage in this letter is excerpted from an article about No Time To Lose and learning disabilities in general, by Isabelle Reid, that appeared in the Summer issue of ACCESS Magazine which was distributed in June. ACCESS Magazine is available free of charge from ACCESS Alberta at 16930 - 114 Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, T5M 3S2.

Resignation announced

Dr. A. E. Hohol, minister of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower, has announced the resignation, effective September 1, 1978, of Paul A. Tietzen, chairman of the Students Finance Board.

Appointed to the Board in 1971, Mr. Tietzen was named chairman in 1972. He also served as assistant deputy minister to the Special Services Division of Alberta Advanced Education and Manpower during 1975.

Dr. Hohol noted that during the period of Mr.

Tietzen's leadership many board activities were expanded and improved. As examples he cited professional counselling services, public appeals committees and high school visitation programs.

"In the area of student financial assistance, Mr. Tietzen's expertise is recognized throughout Canada," the Minister stated.

The appointment of a new chairman to the Board is expected in the near future.

Da Camera Singers appoint new director

Dr. Larry D. Cook of the Faculty of Music, the University of Alberta is the new conductor of the Edmonton based prestigious Da Camera Singers.

Dr. Cook, presently associate professor of music and chairman, division of Choral Music at the U of A, and is also the director of the Richard Eaton Singers, the U of A Concert Choir, and the U of A Madrigal Singers. He has been associated with the University of Alberta since 1973, where he teaches courses in choral music and organ.

Da Camera Singers are highly regarded throughout Western Canada as one of Canada's best chamber choirs. Although not of professional status, the group seeks to present music of a high standard and quality of performance often only attained by professional choirs. The group has performed just about every type of music available to a small choir, and while specializing in a capella (unaccompanied) music, has performed everything from Bach to Rock in its 16 years of existence as a choir.

The coming year proposes to be very exciting for the Singers. In combination with the Richard Eaton Singers, the U of A Concert Choir and the Edmonton Symphony, they will present Beethoven's 9th Symphony on March 23 and 24. Later in the spring, the group will again appear with the Symphony in a performance of a work for small chorus and orchestra by one of Canada's foremost composers, Violet Archer of Edmonton. The work is being commissioned by the CBC. Added to this will be regular choral concerts, interspersed throughout the year.

Da Camera is always on the lookout for new vocal talent. The group serves Edmonton and area, some members commuting to the city for the regular two hour Thursday night practices, from Onoway, Sherwood Park and St. Albert.

Dr. Cook will be conducting auditions for new members on September 14, 16 and 17. All interested singers are asked to call 435-9642, after 3 p.m.

"Nexus" in concert

The Community Programs Division of the Library presents NEXUS in concert on Saturday, September 16 at 8:30 p.m. in the Centennial Library Theatre.

A six man percussionist ensemble founded in Rochester, N.Y. in 1971, and currently based in Toronto, NEXUS offers new approaches to percussionist music with an array of instruments lovingly collected from far reaching places in the world. Their musical repertoire is multi-cultural including African ceremonial tunes, Russian and Mexican folk tunes, ragtime rhythms, fife and drum music and soft bell sounds of the Orient. Contemporary compositions by John Cage, Betsy Jolas, Steve Reich, Jo Kondo and John Wyre are included, as well as arrangements of music by Chopin, Haydn, Satie, Scott Joplin, Spike

Jones and American ragtime xylophone master, George Hamilton Green.

In June, 1976, Nexus toured Japan performing ragtime and African drum medleys. The ensemble has performed at the Shaw Festival, the Guelph Spring Festival and at the Citadel Theatre in Edmonton. In 1978 they received rave reviews as guest artists with the Toronto Symphony and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestras. Their 1978/79 season includes a tour of the United Kingdom in December as well as many major concerts throughout U.S.A. and Canada. In addition to having recorded two albums, Nexus made the intriguing soundtrack for the Academy Award winning documentary "The Man Who Skied Down Everest."

The group's members chose the name Nexus because it means "coming together to celebrate being together." All their playing has that quality of enjoyment of playing that is contagious to any audience.

Tickets for the concert on September 16 are $6/adults and $4/senior citizens and students, available at all Woodward's outlets.

Film Society launches season

The Edmonton Film Society launches its 42nd season on September 18, 8 p.m. at SUB Theatre, U of A. The premiere film will be That Obscure Object of Desire, Luis Bunuel's latest surrealist comedy that was nominated for two Academy Awards. The film is part of the International Series, which consists of 10 recent films, mostly from Europe and most of which will receive their first Edmonton exposure. Included are the Cannes Film Festival prizewinner Padre Padronne, the Soviet version of Shakespeare's King Lear and an East German comedy set in the Holocaust, Jacob The Liar. Also in this series are two U.S. features which have received scant release: Citizen's Band and Dark Star. "They deserve better than they got," says Ralph Horak, Society organizer.

"Citizen's Band appeared on as many critic's '10-best' lists as Annie Hall, yet received only a week's play in the city in the dead of winter, while Dark Star, a marvelous science-fiction film, played three days on the lower half of a double bill. Hardly anyone caught it. We aim to show audiences that these films deserve wider appreciation." The International Series will run on Monday nights.

The Classic Series follows a course successfully charted by the Film Society several years ago - showing Hollywood films of the 30's and 40's. "This was our most financially successful series last season," says Horak. "A lot of people love the old classics, particularly comedies of the screwball or sophisticated variety, so we've scheduled plenty of them again this season. We also like to show a few of the lesser-known films, like Zoo in Budapest and The Man Who Laughs, to give people a chance to see more unusual, rarified examples of Hollywood's art." The Classic Series starts September 25 at Tory Lecture Theatre, U of A, 8 p.m. with the Katharine Hepburn - Cary Grant comedy The Philadelphia Story. Comedies in the series include Monkey Business (Cary Grant-Marilyn Monroe); The Major and the Minor (Ginger Rogers) and The Moon's Our Home (Henry Fonda). The series shows Monday nights, alternating with the International Series.

A third group of films titled The Clowns will screen on Wednesday nights at Tory Theatre, beginning October 11. "This series looks at the great comedians of both the silent and the sound era," says Mr. Horak. "We've chosen what we think are the best examples of the work of six comics - Charlie Chaplin, Harold Lloyd, Buster Keaton, the Marx Brothers, Laurel and Hardy and W.C. Fields." Films to be shown include The Navigator (Keaton), Duck Soup (Marx Bros.) and Never Give a Sucker an Even Break (W.C. Fields).

Later in the season, a series titled Eroticism in the Cinema will be screened.

The Edmonton Film Society is a non-profit organization staffed entirely by volunteers who, among other duties, choose the films, write program notes for all presentations, manage a film library for members and publish an annual magazine called Film Edmonton. Membership is restricted to those 18 and over. Tickets to any series may now be obtained at any Woodward's Box Office or at the Hub outlet on campus. A free brochure detailing all the films to be shown may be obtained at those outlets or by phoning 488-4335 after 4 p.m.

Important Film Society Dates:

Sept. 18 - International Series begins. That Obscure Object of Desire, 8 p.m., SUB Theatre, U of A. Monday nights, 10 films for $20.

Sept. 25 - Classic Series opens. The Philadelphia Story (Katherine Hepburn, Cary Grant, James Stewart), H.M. Tory Lecture Theatre, U of A 8 p.m. Alternate Monday nights, 10 films for $16.

Oct. 11 - The Clowns Series starts. The Circus (Charlie Chaplin), Tory Lecture Theatre, 8 p.m. Wednesday nights, seven films for $10.

New resident designer for Shoctor Theatre

Artistic Director Peter Coe has announced that Lawrence Schafer will be resident designer for the Shoctor Theatre's 1978-79 season.

A native of Kitchener, Ontario, Mr. Schafer gained his earliest theatrical experience designing numerous productions for Hart House Theatre and the Royal Conservatory of Music's Opera School while completing a B.A. in art history at the University of Toronto. Resident designer of the Shaw Festival in Niagara-on-the-Lake for three seasons, he has also designed dramatic productions for the Stratford Festival, Neptune Theatre (Halifax), Citadel Theatre (Edmonton), Manitoba Theatre Centre (Winnipeg) and St. Lawrence Centre (Toronto).

About synthesizers ... for everyone

with Simon

Mention the word electronic music or synthesizer, and the reaction from musicians and music lovers ranges from ecstatic delight to plain horror. After all, this form of music is only about 30 years old, and for all intents and purposes, it is going to be the music of the future. The main purpose of this article is to elucidate some mysteries associated with computer music.

The electronic music synthesizer is designed to imitate conventional instruments and create sounds that no other musical instrument available so far can produce sonically. To have a fair understanding of the synthesizer, take a close look at the electronic organ and piano. These two instruments have the advantages of portability, and the organ in particular has the ability to imitate a variety of orchestral instruments.

There is a great similarity between the music synthesizer and the analogue computer. The analogue computer is a device which houses a collection of useful electrical "functional blocks." For example, an "adder" block will produce a signal which is the sum total of its input signals; likewise a "multiplier." These same functional blocks exist in a music synthesizer, where the adder is known as the "mixer" and the multiplier as the "ring modulator." More on this later.

Most synthesizers have conventional keyboards like a piano. This arrangement makes it easy for the beginner to assimilate the basic idea of making electronic music by using conventional means.

The control board of a synthesizer looks like the flight-deck of a Concord supersonic, but learning to use those knobs is pretty simple. All you really require is some musical knowledge (to play the keyboard) and an aptitude to learn and experiment with new things.

With a bit of patience, you will soon be producing all kinds of sound patterns (for special effects in plays, radio shows, background music, etc.), and with persistence, Bach will never sound the same again.

It is generally believed that extensive knowledge of electronics is required to play the synthesizer. May I suggest you need as much electronic knowledge to play your electronic organ at home, and the best exponents of this fantastic instrument couldn't solder two bits of wire together.

Now, let's have a look at a music synthesizer "building block."

Voltage Controlled Oscillator [VCO]: With which frequency of oscillation can be varied by a changing voltage. When you hit a note on the keyboard, this produces a signal in the form of voltage, which works directly on the oscillator. Your waveform outputs may be sine, square or triangle, and they may also be linear or exponential (equally tempered).

Voltage Controlled Amplifier [VCA]: The "gain" of the amp (i.e. ratio of input to output amplitude) is controlled. The control characteristic may be linear or exponential (equally tempered), and the input signal may be positive or negative, a waveform of some kind.

Voltage Controlled Filter [VCF]: May have low-pass, band-pass or high-pass characteristics. With certain control settings, the filter may be made to oscillate, and hence act as VCO.

Noise Generator: Generates random signal. Specially filtered noise, like "pink noise," may be made available.

Mixer: Used to add two or more signals in the desired amounts. In its most versatile form, it is able to add voltages together, and is known as Control Voltage Processor (CVP).

Sequencer: Produces a series of voltage levels, normally for control purposes.

Ring Modulator: Multiplies two signals together.

Envelope Generator: A combination of VCA and control logic, which when fired, controls the attack, duration and decay time of a signal.

Equalizer: A sophisticated tone control system, capable of finely adjusting the tonal range of sounds or noise generated.

Keyboard: A trigger pulse is produced whenever a key is depressed. The voltage generated is in proportion to the position of the key, and depending on the design, one or more keys may be depressed.

Phase Modulator: Causes the phase of the signal to vary. If a phase-modulated signal is added to the original signal, certain frequencies will be more prominent while others are eliminated. The result is a complex filtering effect.

Potentiometer [POT]: Volume control for signals. It is also known as "panoramic potentiometer" (pan-pot) when used to reduce volume in one channel and increase volume in the corresponding channel for the purpose of moving a stereo image.

Here we are at last. If you do not know what a synthesizer can do, I have some suggestions for you. But be warned. If you listen to properly arranged and performed music on this space age instrument, the limitations of conventional will become very apparent, and you may get hooked on electronic music.

Edmonton actors workshop: survival focus of first play

Edmonton Actors' Workshop is pleased to announce that its' first show of the 1978/79 season will be the world premiere of a new play, Yiskor. Based on interviews with survivors of concentration camps during WW 11, Yiskor is the culmination of over a year of research and writing. Although the play deals with one of the most appalling crimes ever perpetrated by man against man, Yiskor places its strong emphasis not on the destruction but on survival -- on the courage and fortitude of those who kept their will to survive. The script concerns itself with the spirit of resistance.

Yiskor is filled with humour and pathos. In times of trouble one of man's greatest tools of survival is his ability to laugh. Yiskor is a reaffirmation of the triumph of the human spirit.

Written by Martin Fishman and Fred Keating, with original music by Peter Landey, Yiskor will be directed by Edmonton Actors' Workshop Artistic Director, Martin Fishman and will feature, Bob Collins, Richard Gishler, Heather Lea MacCallum, Frank C. Turner and Christine Willes.

The Edmonton Actors Workshop was incorporated in December of 1976, with a core of four people. It has since produced No Exit, at the Rice Theatre; O'Mistress Mine at the Wild Rose Folk Festival, Lake Eden and When The Sky Was Still A Poem, a co-production with the Citadel Theatre; and Sexual Perversity in Chicago, at the Northern Light Theatre.

A spud by any other name...

Potatoes have had a prominent place on the tables of both rich and poor for hundreds of years. They have managed to maintain their place of prominence despite periods of scarcity and famine. They can be as simple as baked potatoes or as sophisticated as "Anna," as Swiss as Rosti or as Irish as O'Brien. On restaurant menus they may appear under many names. The waiter is always pleased to assist in ordering but it is interesting to know the meaning of many of the terms.

Anna Potatoes - raw potatoes are sliced in thin layers in a fry pan with melted butter. The layers are sprinkled with salt and pepper, dotted with butter and pressed down to form a cake. It is cooked slowly until brown and then finished in the oven.

Rissolo Potatoes - slices of boiled potatoes are sauteed in butter, then sprinkled with chopped parsley.

Hashed Brown Potatoes - chopped or diced raw or cooked potatoes fried in butter until brown and folded like an omelet.

O'Brien Potatoes - hashed brown potatoes to which chopped onions and green peppers have been added.

Lyonnaise Potatoes - sliced or diced cooked potatoes are fried in butter until golden brown. Sautéed sliced or diced onion is added and they are sprinkled with salt, pepper and chopped parsley.

Julienne or Shoestring Potatoes - are crisp, french fried potatoes cut in thin, matchlike strips.

Franconia Potatoes - these are browned potatoes cooked around the roast.

Chateau Potatoes - raw potatoes are trimmed to make small balls then cooked in butter until golden brown. They may be sprinkled with chopped parsley. They are a usual accompaniment to grilled Chateaubriand steak.

Potato a la Dauphinoise - thinly sliced raw potatoes are moistened with milk and a beaten egg. They are seasoned with salt, pepper, nutmeg and Gruyere cheese is added. This mixture is placed in a baking dish, dotted with butter, sprinkled with more cheese and baked in a slow oven.

Gnocchi - (Potato Balls) These are mashed potatoes to which egg yolks, flour and yeast are added. This mixture is breaded, then bits are broken off and dropped into boiling water. They are drained, placed in a baking dish in layers, sprinkled with Parmesan cheese and melted butter and browned in the oven. They are often seen on menus for Italian food.

LaLeche League growing

More mothers choose breast feeding

After a long period of bottle feeding babies as the preferred method of the majority, it appears that more and more of today's mothers are choosing to breast feed their babies. Such mothers are given encouragement and support by the LaLeche League which began about 20 years ago in a very small way indeed. One mother who had successfully nursed her baby, helped another who wanted to breastfeed. Others came to these two for advice, and soon there was a group in the Chicago suburb as the chain reaction continued, and more and more mothers began to breastfeed their babies. An organization called the LaLeche League was formed.

It is now international in scope but the concept of nursing mothers helping others who wish to nurse is still the basic approach.

Frances Preston started a LaLeche League group in St. Albert three years ago. We really had no idea that it would grow the way it has, she told the Gazette. About 17 or 18 women are attending the monthly sessions, and of course these are not the same people, so that scores of women have received help from the League over the past three years.

The St. Albert LaLeche League holds its meetings on the second Tuesday of each month. During a series of four monthly meetings, the group informally discusses the physical, practical and psychological sides of breastfeeding. The meeting discussions include the latest medical research, as well as personal experience.

Topics and dates for the next series are:

Sept. 12 - Advantages of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby

Oct. 10 - Art of Breastfeeding and Overcoming Difficulties

Nov. 14 - The Family and the Breastfed Baby

Dec. 12 - Nutrition and Weaning.

All women who are interested in nursing their babies are invited - as are their babies. You need not be pregnant or even have a family to attend. For information call 459-4747.

It was after the first world war the women began to get away from breastfeeding - "perhaps part of the liberating of women in many areas then," said Fran. Now she feels that the greatly renewed interest in breastfeeding may be part of an overall attitude of returning to more natural methods and ways of living.

PEDIATRIC ASSOCIATION SUPPORTS

Unicef has marked 1979 as the Year Of The Child and the Canadian Pediatric Association has decided to make breastfeeding their topic, which will undoubtedly have a solid impact on the trend to breastfeeding.

Third World countries are concerned with the effects of bottle feeding which is more expensive. For this reason mothers will try to make formula go further by adding water to it and the babies suffer from malnutrition. But women have been persuaded that bottle feeding is "the thing to do," said Mrs. Preston and it is not easy for the authorities to change this attitude.

The LaLeche League makes no effort whatever to convert mothers to breastfeeding. They simply offer practical tips, gained from their own experience, and advice. The latest medical research is also made available to mothers and others interested, through an excellent loan library containing many books and pamphlets on childbirth, child care and breastfeeding. There is also a book, the LaLeche League Love Story.

Mrs. Preston is leaving St. Albert this week for Banff and Susan MacLean will be taking over as leader of the St. Albert Group. Fran will be continuing with League work as district adviser to Southern Alberta.

LaLeche is Spanish for "the milk" and the League's purpose is to help encourage "good mothering through breastfeeding." LaLeche League believes that mother's milk is the best food for baby, and, more importantly, that breastfeeding gives the baby the best start in living.

The importance of breastfeeding is stressed, not as an end in itself, but as an integral part of the whole human relationship.

The work of the league has really mushroomed over the last five years," said Mrs. MacLean. Registered nurses and doctor's wives are among those involved, and young doctors whose wives are breastfeeding help us. We really take the part in the modern world of older sisters and mothers who used to give such support to young mothers, before families became so mobile. There used to be a western region, but now every province has league groups.

Both Susan and Fran are impressed with the young mothers who come to the meetings. "They take over all the duties other than the trained leader's work, serving as librarians, hostesses, secretaries - they're a great group." They get women from the young with their first baby to mothers with up to six children, and in St. Albert, people who have come from all over the world.

In addition to meetings telephone counselling is offered with the local group receiving 15 calls a week on average.

WORKING MOTHERS COPE WELL

Asked about working mothers, because so many are in this category today, the leaders said it perhaps takes a certain kind of mother, but the ones that do cope very well. Some express the milk and some start solids sooner. It is a nice way to greet the baby to nurse it when you arrive home, said Fran.

Susan, who came from England, pointed out that for generations working mothers had no other choice - they took their babies to work. There are nursing breaks in many European firms and often day care centres in the buildings.

Every three years the LaLeche League holds international conventions - last year in Toronto. They have a medical advisory board who must approve all published information.

While most of their work is done through meetings and telephoning, the league will, if requested, attend pre-natal classes, meetings of parent groups etc. Last year LaLeche groups were requested to assist at clinic days held by the International Childbirth Edmonton Association.

The St. Albert group, through the interest of the Sturgeon Health Unit, receives calls from centres as far away as Barrhead, and welcome many women from the district surrounding St. Albert.

Susan takes over from Fran
Susan MacLean, left, is taking over this week as leader of the St. Albert branch of the LaLeche League, since Frances Preston is moving to Banff. Frances, who started the league here, is expanding her activity and will serve as the League's District Adviser for Southern Alberta.

New flower club wins 13 awards

St. Albert's newly formed Flower Arranging Club entered 19 exhibits in the Edmonton Horticultural show and came away with 13 ribbons, nine of which were for first place.

The club was formally organized in June with a slate of officers elected and bylaws drawn up. Laurie Mack is the first president, supported by Eleanor Rebeiro as V.P., Irma Wilson, secretary; Heather Nielsen, director of Fund Raising and P.R. and Rita Harris, director of flower shows.

They are an advanced group who started with St. Albert's community services program and decided to expand. Bylaws have a provision that members must have training at least corresponding to the Level 1 course offered by the city, or previous experience.

We're going to keep on learning and working and growing said Laurie, and who knows - perhaps we will be the nucleus of a Horticultural Society for St. Albert and District. The club was formed to take in the electoral district of St. Albert constituency, which is roughly the city and the M.D. of Sturgeon, an area which is certainly capable of developing a fine horticultural society.

Besides entering the Edmonton show the club has done some corsages for civic functions and next summer has plans for providing flower arrangements as a service for Youville Home.

Registration will be held along with a meeting on September 13.

The club has made a fine start with their prize winning entries and is looking forward to many new members from the city and district.

Following are the award winners:

Miniature Arrangements - 3. Rita Harris, 3. Laurie Mack.

Dried Hall Arrangement - 1. Eileen Peterson, highly commendable - Laurie Mack.

Buffet Arrangements - 2. Eileen Peterson, 3. Rita Harris.

Nameless suds flunk tests

Two out of three generic (no-name) brands of dish detergents were given an unacceptable performance rating by Canadian Consumer in its August issue. The Dominion and Steinberg brands received the rating in a comparative test with 12 name brands. The third no-name brand, by Loblaw's, received only an average rating.

The consumers' product testing magazine rated three brand-name detergents, Cascade, Co-op and Ivory as best performers. Performance was judged by the number of dishes washed using a standard squirt of detergent and by the cost per 100 dishes.

The three top performers were medium priced in comparison to the other detergents tested but cost less to use in the long run.

"We have to point out right away," reported the magazine, "that products such as the two low-performing generic ones are not worth buying.

"Despite the fact that they are very cheap, they are so watered down that their low price is of little advantage."

Metric odometers may be problem

Buying a used car will be tricky in several years, reports Canadian Consumer in its August issue. The reason: metric odometers.

Since September 1977, the federal government has required that all odometers and trip recorders in new cars must be calibrated in metric units. Since the kilometer is only about 5/8 of a mile, the odometer on a late-model car will reach the 100,000 turn-over point more quickly (at 62,137 miles).

This means that a three or four year old car with 80,000 miles on it (about 130,000 km) would only show 30,000 km on the odometer. Depending on the cosmetic appearance of the car, it might be difficult to judge if it were a low mileage find or a high mileage car about to need a major engine overhaul.

The simple solution would be the installation of six digit odometers, which would register to one million kilometers. Strangely enough, only a few cars such as Mercedes-Benz, Volvo, Peugeot, BMW, Saab and Porsche offer six-digit odometers.

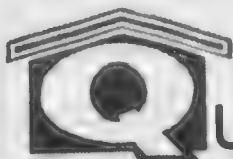

The North American and the economy-minded import manufacturers have simply fallen asleep at the wheel.

The exterior shown uses both vertical and horizontal siding to accent the natural lines of the home. The front also has natural fieldstone, which can be added as well for the exterior of the fireplace. The illustration shows the installation of an "acorn-type" of fireplace, which does not require a masonry chimney. Naturally it's much cheaper than the masonry type, but to many homeowners, the extra expense pays off in the added beauty of stone and mortar.

The double door front entry is one step down from the large living room. It will seem even larger, with the vaulted ceiling, and twin narrow windows flanking the fireplace on the end wall. Next to the guest coat-closet is the secluded dining room, and once again, with extensive glass area. Drape these windows in luxurious material, put a china cabinet in the alcove, and add a dining suite to match, and you'll create an enviable entertainment area.

The kitchen and breakfast area again have an abnormal amount of glass area incorporated into the modern design, with patio doors to let people out, and fresh air in. Down a few steps from the breakfast area is the family room, with its own patio doors leading outside.

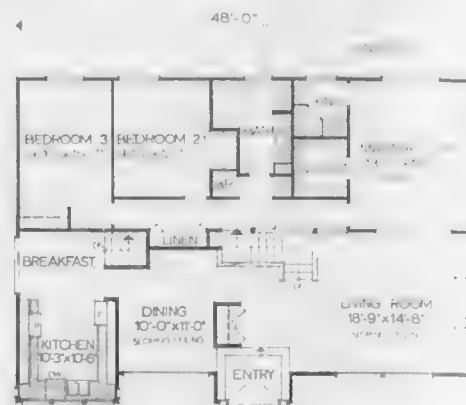

Next to the family room space is left to add another bathroom, and the plan shows roughed-in plumbing. If you have a building plan that shows this, it simply means that the builder is instructed not to finish the bathroom, but to only install the necessary plumbing so that the two bathroom fixtures can be added at a later date as the budget allows. If you wish, you can ask the builder to have this completed at the construction stage.

The unfinished basement area has a washer and dryer, plus the hot water heater and furnace. There's a door leading to the carport, a convenience that will be appreciated when you have an armful of groceries.

The upstairs bedroom section reached by the open stairway from the living-dining-kitchen level is again luxurious. The master bedroom has its own private balcony, a vaulted ceiling with clerestory windows, its own three piece shower ensuite, and a walk-in closet. The other two bedrooms share the common bath. A step runs across two walls, which can be covered with tile or carpet to give the appearance of a sunken tub.

WHILE WAITING FOR A CURE

Jim Taylor, Hospital Chaplain Have you ever wondered about the amount of money that goes into research to find a cure for cancer, for example, and how little is spent to improve the quality of life for persons who already have cancer? If predictions are correct, over 385,000 persons will die in the United States, of cancer in 1978. This means that over

1,000 persons will die of cancer per day. And this is a conservative estimate! The same relative figures would apply to Canada. Could we have made dying easier for these thousands of persons? The answer of course is "Yes."

Medical schools, nursing schools and theological schools are not adequately preparing doctors, nurses and ministers to mention only three professions, to cope with the problems which arise when a patient is diagnosed as having a life-threatening illness. Nor are they equipped by their training to deal with the problems faced by family members when a loved one receives a terminal prognosis.

Even though the emphasis is on a "cure" there appears to be no cure on the horizon there have been significant improvements in treating 10 or 15 of the over one hundred different types of cancer in the past few years but our success record is not much better than it was 50 years ago. But we have become so preoccupied with cure that we do not realize that it does little good to extend the number of days that a person lives physically, unless we can do something to improve the quality of those days.

In my view, a distressing number of religious people place undue emphasis on cure, the expression of sympathy and preparation of a person for eternity without due concern for the time a person has left to live on this earth, and in their many relationships. People with life-threatening illnesses do not want our sympathy; they crave understanding! They also want to be treated as living while they are and desire help in living significantly for as long as they have. Yes, they look desperately for a cure but are usually realistic about their prognosis. Most people in this situation possess hope and faith for the future; they want intimacy, warmth and honesty for the present.

As is usually true, it is not really a question of either-or in this case. We should be focussing on both cure and care. But while waiting for cures, let us get on with our privileged role of making dying easier for so many people.

Anglican Church finds new home

The congregation of St. Matthew's Anglican Church will hold its services this Sunday in its new home. The church, which formerly shared the premises with the United Church, has moved to the St. Joseph's Seminary chapel.

Rev. Donald Dodman commented that St. Matthew's has enjoyed the use of the United Church location. A committee of parishioners from St. Matthew's is examining the possibility of acquiring a site for the church in the future. However, the high cost of such sites within the city of St. Albert is more than most small churches can support.

Services for the Anglican Church will be held Sundays at 8 a.m. and 11:30, with Communion every first and third Sunday. Matins are observed the second, fourth and fifth Sundays of each month.

"A YOUNG AND GROWING CHURCH"

Rudolf the pocket sized bear, goes to the Red Barn

There was a hurry and a hustle to get supper over and cleared. Rudolf sat alone wondering what was going on as he could hear 'getting ready' sort of noises of water running in the bathroom and closet doors opening and closing, and "Where's my shirt" coming from upstairs. Several big black sort of boxes were put by the door and Mara appeared in an evening gown. Rudolf became anxious when she tossed a shawl about her shoulders and there was no pocket to be seen. He had a feeling he was going to miss out on something nice. Then, "ready to go?" and Rudolf found himself sitting on a bunch of plugs and cords in a large canvas bag. A bit uncomfortable, but at least he was going.

It was raining, and the giddy windshield wipers wapped across the glass sending little rivers racing in all directions. It was a pretty wild night and not very many cars were on the road. The ride was bumpy and Rudolf was happy to see the high arched entrance to the Red Barn.

Construction work made the back entrance very muddy, so all the black boxes had to be taken in by the main door. A kind man lent a trolley to put everything on so Rudolf went riding in style, peeping out of the canvas bag at the lofty wooden roof. The trolley moved smoothly over the huge beautiful floor towards a stage made to look like a big hay wagon. Rudolf's canvas bag was carried up and put behind two large barrels. Now he could not see anything in particular, but legs going by as the boxes were arranged, some on top of the barrels and two put out in front of the stage. "I suppose they know what they are doing" thought Rudolf, but at the moment he was lifted out, and there he was, on top of a barrel where he could see the whole amazing building all made of wood, with old fashioned lamps hanging from each upright, supporting a balcony which ran down each side. Rudolf just stared. Under the balcony were tables with red check table cloths and a cluster of people sat at the very far end chattering and laughing and drinking wine.

The little bear was so fascinated by the building and all the old wagon-wheels and farm utensils from by-gone days, that he had not noticed the tangle of cords that were running from one to another of the mysterious boxes. He was wondering about this, when a little red light showed and suddenly music poured out, filling the whole place. That was nice.

Gradually more people gathered at the tables, and as the music roused them, they spilled onto the polished floor and joggled and jiggled about on rubbery legs. Rudolf had not seen people behave that way before, but they did seem to be enjoying themselves, because they kept on doing the same thing over and over again. He thought he would try it when he got home and no one could see him. The lights were dimmed by this time and, but for a couple of candles glowing in red glass globes, the stage area was darkened. It was a magic feeling and Rudolf swayed a little as he watched the tireless writhing figures down on the dance floor.

In a moment's pause in the music, a loud voice coming from the ceiling somewhere, thanked the people who had arranged the party and hoped everybody had enjoyed themselves. The last waltz, and it was all over. A couple of rather hot men came over to the stage and with red up-turned faces, begged for "just one more tune" "just one more then."

Like lightning, all the cords were coiled up, the covers put over the boxes and the whole lot wheeled out into the chilly damp night. Rudolf's ears were still ringing with the music and he was happy.

A's even up fastball series with 5 - 2 win

A two-run single by Gary Mix broke open a 2-2 tie in the sixth inning Monday night and the St. Albert A's went on to defeat LBH Builders 5-2. The win forces a third and deciding game in a best of three playoff series for the "B" side of the Sturgeon Valley Men's Fastball League. The third game will be played tonight at Meadowview with the winner receiving the McGinn Drilling Trophy which was won last year by Spruce Grove KC's.

The game was played under perfect weather conditions at the Meadowview diamond and a good crowd was on hand to see two evenly matched teams.

LBH Builders won the opening game August 21 with a convincing 6-1 win. Gene Lytywn went all the way on the mound allowing only five hits while his teammates got to losing pitcher Randy Schmidt for 10 hits.

Monday night's game was a must for the A's if they were to stay in the playoffs. They came up with a good performance coming from behind a 2-0 deficit to tie the game in the third inning on a two-run triple by Rick Wright and then win on Mix's two-run single in the sixth.

LBH took the lead in the top of the third. John Johnson grounded out but back-to-back singles by Garry Muscroft and John Prusak gave them a pair of baserunners.

A's starting pitcher Randy Schmidt was then pulled with veteran Dick Bird relieving and the first batter he faced popped up to the short stop for the second out.

Bill Russell then hit a single to score Muscroft from third and a ground ball hit by Dave Lozinski was bobbled by shortstop Gary Mix and Prusak raced home with the Builders second run. Bird then struck out Wally Cooper to retire the side with LBH out in front 2-0.

A's tied the game in the bottom of the third. Mix led off with a walk only to see Dennis Dugas fly out to the infield. Mix was then caught stealing for the second out and LBH appeared to be out of the inning without any damage.

Pitcher Gene Lytywn then allowed a single to Schmidt, a walk to Brian Funnell and a two-run triple to Rick Wright to tie the score before getting Jack Hicks to ground out and end the inning.

Both clubs managed to get runners on in the fourth and fifth innings but could not get them home.

A's opened the sixth with the first two batters reaching base. Gord English singled into right field and advanced to second on a perfect bunt by Frank Niven as the Builders were caught napping. Both runners advanced on a passed ball and both scored on Mix's single to right field. A two-out single by Schmidt and some infield mistakes by the Builders allowed Mix to score the final run of the game.

In the A series, defending champion Stony Plain Playboys made it three cups in a row shutting out Stony Plain Kings 4-0 to take their series in two straight games.

No details of the game were known at press time other than that Jim Millar went all the way on the mound for the win and Danny Woichek took the loss. Full results will appear in next week's Gazette.

Coaches needed

Minor hockey one week away

St. Albert's minor hockey program kicks into high gear September 5 as tryouts for eight representative teams officially get under way.

St. Albert Kinsmen Minor Hockey Association - Representative Division chairman Bob Couture announced tryouts for all "A" and "B" teams would commence September 5 and continue to September 17 at the city's new Akinsdale Arena.

All players living in St. Albert or attending St. Albert schools, or those players who have been registered in St. Albert's minor hockey program in past years are eligible for the various teams.

Minor hockey registration forms will soon be available at RMC Sports Centre or the St. Albert Sportshop, and players trying out must have registered before stepping on the ice.

Players trying out will also be charged $1 for each tryout and must take that amount to the rink. Players must also be fully dressed, including helmets when they hit the ice.

The schedule for initial tryouts:

Sept. 5: 7 - 8:30 p.m. Pee wee A; 9 - 11 p.m. Bantam A and Bantam B.
Sept. 6: 9 - 11 p.m. Midget

A and Midget B.

Sept. 7: 7 - 8:30 p.m. Pee wee B; 9 - 11 p.m. Juvenile A and Juvenile B.

Sept. 8: 7 - 8:30 p.m. Bantam B; 9 - 10:30 p.m. Midget B.

Sept. 9: 7 - 8:30 p.m. Pee wee A; 9 - 10:30 p.m. Bantam A;

Sept. 16: 8 a.m. - 9:30 a.m. Bantam B; 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Pee wee B.

Sept. 17: 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. Midget B; 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Midget A. □

One major obstacle still faces the representative division however, and that involves coaches.

Two coaches -- one for the Midget B's and one for the Juvenile B's -- are still required.

Volunteers and coaches from Midget and Juvenile A teams will assist in the initial tryouts if necessary, but coaches selection chairman Doug McConachie is still hopeful coaches for the two teams can be named before they hit the ice.

Anyone interested in coaching is asked to contact McConachie at 458-0907.

The two teams will be playing in a league involving Barrhead, Westlock, Sherwood Park, and Spruce Grove and Athabasca is included in the Juvenile B league.

All financing of the eight representative teams, including travelling costs and tournament and provincial playdown fees is paid for by player registration and from funds raised by the representative division.

Ice rental is also being looked after by the representative division, with ice booked into both St. Albert arenas this year, along with ice at Calahoo and the Sturgeon Arena.

It is expected representative teams will be on the ice an average of four times a week this year.

The representative division is also seeking sponsors for three teams.

Sponsors and coaches for teams already announced: Please turn to page 24

Meeting tomorrow

Flag football gets good response

Response to an article of two week's ago has proven very encouraging to organizers of the St. Albert Six Man Flag Football League.

Eight teams are ready to go and it is expected at least two more will be made up before the league begins play.

A general meeting of all players who have shown their interest (and those who would like to show theirs) has been called for tomorrow evening (Thursday) at the Grandin Clubhouse (beside the pool). It gets underway at 8 p.m. SHARP.

Rules and scheduling will be laid out at the meeting and anyone requesting modifications may bring them forward for voting. An executive will be elected and registrations will be taken. Be sure to bring your registration fee ($30 per team). Players not registering as a complete team will be organized into teams.

"I've got it"

St. Albert A's catcher Denis Dugas used a little 'kangaroo power' to make this catch. At right Gary Mix and Richard Wright of the A's had some fast decision making as to who should catch the ball. In the sixth inning Mix had a two run single to help the A's to a 5-2 win over the L.B.H. Builders. The best of three series is now tied at one apiece. The final goes tonight at Meadowview.

Junior Saints set exhibition schedule

The St. Albert Junior Saints Hockey Club will open its season Saturday, October 7 in the southern Alberta community of Taber against the Golden Suns.

That announcement came following the release of the Alberta Junior Hockey League schedule which has each of the seven league teams playing 60 league games.

Saints home opener will be Wednesday, October 11th when the always tough Fort Saskatchewan Traders will be the visitors. It promises to be a physical game with both teams renewing the feud that was built up last season.

Doug Messier, coach of the Saints, was pleased with the schedule. It shows the Saints playing before home-town fans a total of 30 times. Thirteen games fall on a Wednesday, seven on Friday and eight on Saturday. Only two Sunday games will be played at home.

Sherwood Park Crusaders (formerly the Edmonton Crusaders) will visit Akinsdale Arena seven times followed closely by the Traders with six appearances. Red Deer Rustlers will be in St. Albert for five games while Calgary Canucks, Calgary Chinooks (formerly from Pincher Creek) and Taber Golden Suns will be here four times each.

Saints will be in Fort Saskatchewan for seven games and Sherwood Park for six, while Red Deer fans will see them five times. They will visit Taber and the two Calgary based teams four games each.

Messier was also pleased with the fact that the Saints will play only six home games on nights that the Edmonton Oilers have home games scheduled. It will no doubt help home crowds. The two teams played the same nights 13 times last season.

Saints have also released their seven game exhibition schedule which will see them

play four at home

Medicine Hat Tigers of the Western Canada Hockey League will be here Monday September 18 with the remaining games played against league teams.

Boating restrictions on lakes and rivers

Thirteenth in a series of articles from RCMP K Division on boating safety and regulations. The police are concerned with the fact that 48 percent of all Alberta drownings investigated in 1977 involved small vessels.

Pursuant to the Federal Boating Restriction Regulations, many lakes and rivers are subject to certain restrictions. They have been established in response to public applications and consist of the following:

* All vessels prohibited except with authority of the Federal Transport Minister* Powered vessels restricted to an 8 m.p.h. maximum speed*

* Powered vessels towing persons on water skis, surf boards or any other such equipment are prohibited.

Permit required to hold a regatta, marine parade or boat race

* Restrictions may apply to posted areas only

For further details identifying what lakes and rivers are restricted, obtain a copy of publication "Boating in Alberta" distributed through the Provincial Department of Recreation, Parks and Wildlife. For details applying to

Casual clothing shop opens on Perron Street

It began three years ago as a hobby. T-shirts were 'in' and slogans of your choice printed on the shirt 'sold like hot cakes'. Brothers George and Henry Bonneville of St. Albert opened a shop in Edmonton on Whyte Avenue.

Before long they realized their 'hobby' was showing a good deal more potential than at first expected and they began looking for store space in their hometown. Finding space at a reasonable rent proved to be more difficult than selling T-shirts and it was two more years before they finally settled on the new Prestige Building located at 7 Perron Street here in St. Albert.

George and Henry felt it was time to expand the T-shirt business to include a full line of casual wear. The Whyte Avenue store was retained and remains the base of the Bonneville T-shirt decalling business although the St. Albert store does handle orders.

Bonneville Casual Wear handles several respected lines in Landlubber, Britannia, H.I.S., Lee, Harvey Woods and Carhart. Carhart is a Canadian company currently very popular in the east and now beginning to surge in western Canada. Bonneville Casual Wear is excited about the Canadian line and feel the fitted jeans and shirts will be strong sellers. George has also been looking at a California based company, International Male and hopes to be carrying some of their stock in the near future.

George and Henry began business together when they purchased the Northgate Motel on St. Albert Trail from their parents Roland and the late Claire Bonneville. They sold the motel one year later and this was followed shortly by the T-shirt shop idea. Both young men were born and raised in St. Albert where they were educated and are still actively involved in sports and organizations.

They're glad to have this opportunity of opening a store in their community and look forward to meeting the casual clothing needs of their friends and neighbours.

Henry Bonneville

Let the computer do the walking

Do you have a specialized or current subject that is difficult to research? Instead of spending hours looking for information through indexes, catalogues, and files, why not request a computer search at the Edmonton Public Library, and have documents, articles and reports scanned in a fraction of the time.

The computer search service at the Centennial Library is hooked up to a number of information retrieval systems across North America. A search librarian from the Information Division will discuss your question with you and key it into the computer. The result is a computer print-out listing references on your question or subject - and a considerable saving of your research time!

For this custom-designed research service you pay only for the computer connect time and for the computer print-out. The Edmonton Public Library absorbs all other costs.

Ask for one of the search librarians to help you at the Information Desk on the main floor of the Centennial Library.

For further details call the information desk at 423-2331 ext. 222.

Inferior mufflers here ?

A muffler which costs less than 50 dollars and lasts for the lifetime of your car -- impossible? Not according to the August issue of Canadian Consumer.

Thanks largely to our inhospitable climate the replacement muffler business in Canada grosses about $225 million annually. Yet reports from the British and American auto industry clearly show that mufflers manufactured out of stainless steel last much longer than the ones we're getting and at little additional cost.

University of Ottawa engineers have constructed such a system and they could find "no evidence of corrosive deterioration in the exhaust system." Four years of research show that stainless steel will "serve years beyond the expected lifetime of any current automobile."

Canadian Consumer, Canada's leading consumer publication, refutes the auto industry's claim of buyers' disinterest and demands immediate action.

Hawkey and McNelly top all-star balloting

By Paul Riopel

The North Central Alberta Baseball League has announced its 1978 all-star team. The players were introduced at a function held last Friday evening at the Red Lion Lounge in Westlock, Alberta. Bevin McNelly, the strong centre fielder from the Vimy and Gary Hawkey, the ace pitcher from the Vimy, topped this season's balloting in the NABL.

For Hawkey, it was the second time he has been honored with a first team selection, having won the NCABL all-star last season in Harvey J. Doherty Memorial Tournament. As for McNelly, a fierce competitor, he was selected as the number one outfielder in the league. It happened somewhat late in the fact that the Blues, who had been eliminated from the league championship series, had which have plagued McNelly in the latter part of the season, may have been part of the reason why the Blues sputtered in the crucial games in August.

It is interesting to note that only two new players managed to earn themselves a berth on the '78 all-star team. They are Bevin McNelly, who was a second all-star pick last year, and Owen Voaklander of the Rochester Royals.

The others, including Gary Huculak (Royals), Hugh Allen (Tigers), Dwayne Bolkoway (Red Lions), Gary Hawkey (Broncos), Jay Hubble (Manufacturers), Dale Lewis (Tigers), and Rico Mueller (Red Lions) are all repeating as first all-star team selections.

The second all-star team selections for '78 offered few real surprises, however many changes from last year's squad are evident. Moe Fagnan, (pitcher-Vimy Blues), Robert Balay (shortstop-Rochester Royals), Lou Rondeau (field-Barrhead Broncos), Ray DeChamplain (field-Legal Pontiacs), and Louis Martineau (field-Legal Pontiacs) were all named to the team for the first time.

Dwayne Jolliffe (Red Lions), who was registered as a catcher this season, drew his second call to the all-stars as did Dean Roy (Manufacturers) at first base. Dwayne Leske (Red Lions) at second base and Bob Briodeau (Blues) at third base.

The major change affecting the all-star team this season was the deletion of the designation referred to as "utility" and the addition of a coaching selection. The first all-star team honor was won by Harry Burchett of the Red Lions while Laurie Maxwell of the Astros earned the second team all-star nomination.

Notably absent from the 1978 all-star team were two young players who showed promise by being named to last season's second all-star team. Gordon Gerlach, who has recently returned to the NCABL from the Edmonton Tigers of the ABL and Del Litke who chose to play for the Stony Plain Dusters are continuing to improve their game. Many of the 1978 all-stars will be competing in the league championship series slated for Barrhead on Sunday, September 3.

Nice try
It was a close play but the goalie won this battle with his opponent on Sunday at Akinsdale Arena during a scrimmage.

Hold Up
Seven buses were held up Monday night by men on horseback. Art Bulleid (left), General Manager, and Bert Joss, President, of the International Association of Engineers were taken by the Edmonton Klondike Posse via stagecoach to the Red Barn where the Association was holding a function.

St. Albert Figure Skating Club

Registration for the 1978-79 season for figure skaters at all levels - Nationals and CFSA - will be held in Akinsdale Arena on Wednesday, September 6 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. There are about 43 openings in the National Program. Anyone wishing to register their child should bring their child's Alberta Health Care Insurance Number and birth date for these are required on the registration form.

Registration fees are $25 for the first family member and $15 for each additional skater.

The ice fees, as yet, have not been calculated.

The Parks and Recreation department has planned a sports equipment sale and/or exchange on Saturday, September 9. The club is reminded that this includes our membership, too. So if you have skates, or skating dresses you would like to sell or exchange, bring them to the Perron Street Arena on Friday, September 8 between 7 - 9 p.m. or Saturday, September 9 between 9 - 11 a.m. so they can be tagged for the sale. The sale will be held Saturday afternoon, September 9 from 1 - 4 p.m. All items should be clean and it is preferred that skates have new laces. The club will charge $50¢ for each item under $5 and $1 for each sold over $5.00. If you wish to make a purchase, Saturday, September 9 is the time to get in on a bargain!

A special notice is given to skaters and their parents in the club a couple of years ago. A whole line of blue-green, one-shouldered costumes for the line Aquarius has been lost, misplaced, loaned or stored and their whereabouts is unknown to the present executive members. The costumes were last used for the Lions Winter Carnival in February 1976 (?). If anyone has any idea as to the whereabouts of this line of costumes, please phone Lorelle Phillips at 459-6445.

Correction: Natalie Lassiter, our talented local skater, chosen to be one of the 32

Alberta skaters to take one week of intensive figure skating training in Calgary, is not 15 years old as printed last week - but 13 years!

Dart Club holding registration

The game of darts is enjoying a surge of popularity in St. Albert. An executive meeting of the St. Albert Dart Club last week set this year's registration night for next Tuesday, September 5 at 8 p.m. in the St. Albert Legion.

The club has had excellent response from preliminary talks with members and it looks like most will be back for another season of play. Registrations will be taken on a first come first serve basis and if response is great enough the club plans to split up into two nights. They currently play Tuesdays at the Legion.

Membership fees in the mixed league have been set at $15 with the first night of play set for September 26.

At least one team will be entered in the competitive Edmonton City Dart League this season and the club is confident that another will be entered in the B division. Last year's entry finished in the top two of B division and earned the right to move up to A.

Any inquiries should be directed to Ron Walker, Games Captain - 973-6870.

Local junior wins tennis tourney

The St. Albert Tennis Club this past weekend hosted the Edmonton and District "B" Tennis Tournament at the Mission and Akinsdale tennis courts. A total of 116 people took part in tournament play and an excellent calibre of play was displayed.

The ladies singles was won by Indra Gupta over Roxanne Moffat. Indra is a young 14 year old who plays out of the Mayfield club and Roxanne is relatively new to the Edmonton tennis scene and plays out of Garneau. These ladies fought hard in an excellent final and the set scores were 6-3 and 6-2.

In the ladies doubles, Emily Gibson and Indra Gupta of Mayfield teamed up to take the title over Phyllis De Luna and Roxanne Moffat of Garneau 6-1, 6-3.

In mixed doubles young 14 year old Jill Glowicki teamed up with her older brother Doug to take the mixed doubles 7-5, 6-3 over Margaret Bagby and Lloyd Scherer of St. Albert.

The mens doubles was won by McLeroy and Siwak from Sherwood Park over Lloyd Scherer and Roger Lebel of St. Albert in a well played match. Lloyd and Roger won the first set 6-1 and then the Sherwood Park pair staged a comeback to win the second and third sets 6-4 and 6-2.

MENS' SINGLES TRIUMPH

The highlight of the tournament for St. Albert people came in the mens' singles. A total of 59 men had entered this event and it proved to be a gruelling test. Tony Morris from St. Albert emerged victorious and he defeated Randy Narayan of Mayfield in three sets 6-2, 4-6 and 6-0.

Tony is well known at the St. Albert courts as he spends a great deal of his time teaching juniors. Tony has worked hard on his tennis game and it is great to see his hard work pay off. Tony reached the semi finals in this tournament last year so he has been a contender before but it was great to see him take the title this year. Tony is a fine example for all young aspiring tennis players because he proves that determination, hard work and good court etiquette can be combined to produce a champion.

A number of local people played in the tournament and they enjoyed the fine competition. Special thanks must be extended to Cynthia Sage, Dave Rudge, Derm Begley and Joan Green for their excellent organization. Also we must thank many of the volunteers that assisted with the extra jobs and helped to make this a fine weekend of tennis.

Teamwork

Chiefs take second place money at Alexander

Calahoo Chiefs lost the final game of the 16-team Alexander Reserve mens' fastball tournament with a 11-1 thumping by Peavine Rangers. They still managed to take home $400 in prize money.

The Calahoo Erins also finished second best in the ladies tournament and took home $200 for their efforts.

Chiefs opened the tournament Saturday afternoon with a 7-2 win over Driftpile. Art Stevenson was on the mound and received home-run support from Wilf Berube and Don Pompana.

Sunday morning Stevenson was again the winning pitcher as the Chiefs scored two runs in the 10th inning on Emile Berube's double to defeat Wabasca 3-1 in what was probably the best game of the entire tournament.

Both clubs were kept off the scoreboard for the first eight innings. When Calahoo scored in the ninth on a double by Pompana and a run scoring single by Wilf Berube it appeared all over but Wabasca came back and tied the game to send it into the 10th. The Chiefs came up with two runs and left Wabasca with runners on second and third with their last batter flying out to the infield.

Chiefs then hooked up with another thriller. They came from behind a 3-0 second inning lead by Alexander Teepee Crawlers to tie the game on a three run triple by Jeff Holden in the fourth and then added two more in the sixth to win 5-3. That game was worth $400 and a shot at first place money of $600.00

Peavine took a 2-0 first inning lead before the Chiefs got on the scoreboard in the second with Holden coming home on a passed ball after hitting a triple.

Rangers added two more in the sixth and put it out of reach in the sixth with seven more.

Art Stevenson went all the way for the loss but was no doubt the most worked pitcher in the tournament. He came up with three wins while pitching a total of 29 innings.

Chiefs will be in the Fort McMurray Blueberry Festival tournament this weekend.

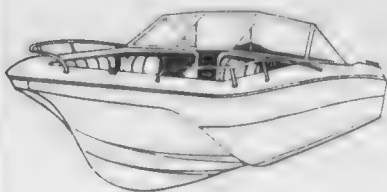

Calahoo Erins won their pening game by default over Fort McMurray and dropped into the "B" draw with a 10-6 loss to Parker Studios. Erins then recorded wins over Wabasca Selects and Alexander to meet Parker in the final only to drop a 6-1 decision in the A final

Mini-Mite soccer to resume in September

Mini-Mite playoffs will be held in September. Teams from east and west will combine to form two groups.

"A" group will be made up of the following six teams: Lacombe International, Grandin Hotspurs, Gatewood United, Firebirds, Raiders and the Red Devils.

Group "B" will be the following eight teams: Mission Rangers, Grandin Town, Lacombe Rovers, Forest Rangers, Alta Kings, Grandin Athletic and Greenbriar Landers.

The first half of the season finished with a well played game between the Firebirds (East champions) and Lacombe International (West champions) for the St. Albert championship.

In the first half of the game the Firebirds with Damien Moroney playing an outstanding game, kept the Internationals on the defence forcing them to give up numerous corner kicks. The Internationals however held together and team captain Yusuf Dalal rallied his team in the second half to put pressure on the strong Firebird team. Success came in the closing minutes for the Internationals with a goal from Andrew Price. The game was very well refereed by Ed McKinley.

Several records won at provincial swim meet

Twenty-three summer club records were toppled last weekend at the Alberta Summer Swim Club Provincial Championships at the Bonnie Doon Pool.

The top two swimmers plus the top two relay teams in each age group and event from the six zones in Alberta battled out the first three positions. The competition was intense and produced some very close finishes.

Officials were piped in by Alastair Jamieson of Westlock right after the long distance events on Saturday morning which signalled the beginning of a very busy Please Turn to Page 34

swim meet

The overall winner was Zone B with a whopping total of 3154 points. This zone is made up of Barrhead, Devon, Drayton Valley, Edson, Hinton, Spruce Grove, St. Albert, Stony Plain, Swan Hills, Westlock and Whitecourt.

Individual winners in the eight and under group were Kent Hehr - Calgary - Zone E, and Sherri Snell of Camrose - Zone C.

In the nine and 10 year olds, Andrew Huculak - Barrhead - Zone B, and Dana Gawryluk of Westlock also of Zone B.

For the 11 and 12 year olds - Lenora Sawatsky - Didsbury - Zone E, and Bruce Hill of Olds - Zone E.

The 13 and 14 year old winners were Barb Hastings - Grande Prairie - Zone A and Rod Burton - St. Albert - Zone B.

For the 15 and 16 year olds - Neil Jamieson - Westlock - Zone B, and Donna Hill - Olds - Zone E.

Open Events - John Antolak - Grande Prairie - Zone A and Diane Pass - St. Albert - Zone B.

Aggregate winners were Neil Jamieson and Donna Hill.

Before we head into the breakdown of events (and there were 90 of them), the New Zealand Commonwealth swim team donated eight cases of juicy delicious apples to the swimmers on the weekend through Mr. Ken Kirsch of St. Albert. The apples were smacked up in no time at all.

And while the hat of special acknowledgement is being tipped, how about Larry and Debbie Wilson, the coaches of the Sailfish team? Their long hours of work and weekends with our swimmers is on an entirely voluntary basis only. This rather outstanding club that consistently cleaned up at nearly every meet neither has a sponsor nor a single grant. They are entirely on their own except for the pool time donated by the city for training periods and meets.

And now on with the scrapbook items: Women's open 800 meter freestyle - Sheila Dick was just nudged out of a bronze by 1/10th of a second with a time of 12:24.8. Women's open 400 m. freestyle, Diane Pass broke the old record for a gold medal with a new time of 5:31.7. The old time was 2/10ths of a second slower. See how close it can be?

And to have a look at the top three positions that other St. Albert swimmers took for gold, silver and bronze:

Andre Borloi - boys 11 and 12 - 25 m. fly - silver - with the time of 15:5 (a tie with the old record).

Tom Munro - boys 13 & 14 - 50 m. fly - gold with a time of 31:1 (a tie with the existing record).

Claudette Larocque - girls 13 & 14 m. fly - bronze - 35:4 just nudging out teammate Janet Ewen by 1/10th of a second.

Gretel Rachor - girls 8 and under - 25 m. backstroke - silver - 22:7.

Rod Burton - boys 13 & 14 100 m. backstroke - gold - 1:13:7.

Susan Otto - girls 13 & 14 100 m. backstroke - silver - 1:20:1.

Carolyn Wilhelm - girls 15 & 16 100 m. back - silver with a time under the old record of 1:19:4. Carolyn's time was 1:18:8.

Rod Burton - boys 13 & 14 - 100 m. breaststroke - gold - 1:21:1.

Sheila Dick - girls 13 & 14 - 100 m. breaststroke - gold - 1:29:0.

Linda Benko - women's open 100 m. breaststroke - silver - 1:30:6.

Tom Munro - boys 13 & 14 100 m. freestyle - silver - 1:04:0.

Rod Burton - boys 13 & 14 100 m. freestyle - bronze - 1:05:8.

Andre Borloi - boys 11 and 12 100 m. IM - bronze - 1:24:1.

Rod Burton - boys 13 & 14 100 m. IM - silver - 1:11:9.

Tom Munro - boys 13 & 14 100 m. IM - bronze - 1:11:9.

Susan Otto - girls 13 & 14 100 m. IM - bronze - 1:20:8.

On Sunday, the roof of the Bonnie Doon pool was lifted ever so slightly with the carsplitting cheers for the relay teams. Fans, families, friends and teammates generated wild enthusiasm and once again, St. Albert came through in the top three.

In the girls 8 and under - in the 100 m. medley - a silver - 1:42:6; in the 100 m. free - a silver - 1:32:3.

Boys 9 & 10 100 m. medley - silver 1:22:2; 100 m. free - silver 1:12:6.

Girls 9 & 10 free 100 m. gold - 1:11:3 to break the old record of 1:11:5.

Boys 11 & 12 100 m. medley - silver 1:11:8; 100 m. free - silver 1:06:6.

Boys 13 & 14 200 m. medley - gold 2:17:0 a new record over the old standing of 2:18:4; 200 m. free - gold 2:00:5 again a new record over the previous 2:00:9.

M.D. backs bus safety program

Alberta Transportation is currently running a program on school bus safety throughout the province. The MD/Municipality of Sturgeon heartily supports this program.

Reeve Flynn says that the safety of school children on school buses is a matter of concern for everyone.

"The program is aimed at both motorists and bus riders," explained Reeve Flynn. "Motorists are being made aware that they must stop for school buses that have activated their alternately flashing red lights and bus riders are being told that good behaviour is essential in and around the bus."

Alberta Transportation is replacing the old school bus sign with a new sign that symbolically pictures a school bus loading or unloading passengers and carries the message "Lights Flashing Do Not Pass." This new sign is being erected on highways throughout Alberta. They have also made a number of these signs available to us and we will be putting these signs up on district roads throughout the County/M.D.

Reeve Flynn commented that the new sign is a vast improvement over the old sign because it is larger, more easily visible, and less confusing to motorists.

Reeve Flynn added that Alberta Transportation in conjunction with putting up new signs is conducting a media campaign. This campaign should help make motorists more aware of their responsibilities with respect to school buses and make bus riders more aware of the importance of good behaviour in and around school buses.

The missing church bell has been reunited with Father Primeau after an anonymous phone call late Thursday. The bell, Jeanne Marie Bathilde, was found 50 feet beyond the tracks west of Heritage Lake. Sergeant Howard Lamb of the Morinville detachment found the 200 pound bell in a clump of bushes. Pete Gibeault (left in photo) pointed out that the 71 year old bell now has a broken shaft since its removal.

Father Primeau Convent designated as historic resource

A building in Morinville significant for its unusual style and contribution to settlement and growth of the province has been designated a Provincial Historic Resource. This announcement was made by Horst A. Schmid, minister of Culture, on the occasion of a community farewell to Father Georges Primeau, a man who has been instrumental in the preservation of Morinville's historical resources.

The Notre Dame Convent, one of Alberta's few remaining French Canadian convent-style, brick buildings, was constructed in 1909. Additions were made to the building in 1920 and 1930. Notable features include a mansard roof and dormer windows.

From 1909 to 1972 Notre Dame Convent was the home of a teaching order of nuns - Les Filles de Jesus, and served as a residential and day school, drawing students from all over Alberta. In 1972, it was sold to the local school district and continued to function as a day school until June, 1977.

This former convent is historically important because of its association with early French Canadian settlers and with Les Filles de Jesus. Notre Dame was its Provincial House for nearly 45 years, and was headquarters for the order's activities in both Alberta and Montana.

The convent is Morinville's oldest educational and cultural facility. Appropriately, it is part of the proposed Place St. Jean, a complex which also includes the old St. Jean Baptiste Church and Rectory, which has already been designated a Registered Historic Resource.

Recently purchased by the Town of Morinville, the convent will continue to serve as a cultural and recreational facility. A 10-year plan has been proposed which includes restoration of each of the convent's three sections to their respective periods.

Redwater Town Council News

The Redwater Town Council, in an effort to communicate more effectively with citizens, has adopted an administration policy "that Council draw up and publish (at no cost) a general newsletter from time to time" keeping citizens informed on current matters affecting town government.

Municipal Taxes: To supplement the details given in your recent information sheet which was included with your tax notice, the following information will help you to understand how the Sturgeon School Division Requisition has affected the Town's mill rate.

1) The School Board budgeted for $1,994,650 in School Grants from the Province. In fact, however, the grant was $450,000 less than what was applied for. Therefore, this deficit had to be picked up by the Sturgeon School Division.

2) Rather than going into debt, a capital amount of $300,000 was budgeted for renovating of the School Division Offices at Morinville.

3) The surplus amount of $235,000 for the year 1977 was put into reserve. As a further reserve, an additional $200,000 was budgeted.

The School Division total operational budget has increased from $6,426,336 in 1977 to $9,070,618 in 1978. The main reasons for increase are:

a) School Foundation -- increase of $1.4 million

b) Supplementary requisition, plus Special Education Grants - $1.16 mill.

Recreation Board: The Redwater Recreation Board has been very active this past year. It has recently applied for membership in the Sturgeon Regional Recreation Council which consists of representatives from all Recreation Boards in the MD of Sturgeon. This council has a full time recreation staff who provide professional help to all the co-operating authorities. The Redwater Recreation Board feels that the assistance in programming and planning will be very beneficial to the Town. We should learn within the next few weeks whether we have been accepted.

This spring the Recreation Board provided the Redwater Story Time with assistance in staging a Clown and Puppet Act.

The swimming pool has been operating smoothly during the entire swim season. The Board would like to thank the pool staff for the smooth operation and the patrons of the pool who made the season a great success. One problem concerned complaints about the rough texture of the pool floor. This Please Turn to Page 36

Redwater Council

will be checked out this fall and repaired as required before the next swim season.

The Board has helped the Redwater Tennis Club get tennis organized in the Multiplex this summer. There are two courts open on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and Sunday afternoons. A $5 membership allows you to play tennis at any of the above times. We hope that tennis will be offered during September if volunteers can be recruited to help supervise the courts during the hours of operation. If you are interested in helping or playing tennis, contact Dan Pierce at the Multiplex. With more citizen participation in providing supervision, tennis should be able to be offered next year, and possibly lessons could be organized for beginners.

During the winter, the Board will be involved in developing its five-year master plan. They will also be looking at curling and coaches' clinics and a badminton club as possible programs for the winter season. The Board will take positive steps in a parks improvement program for the coming year.

Police Commission Notes: Consideration is being given to a possible Neighborhood Watch Program, instituted by the RCMP, and its implementation carried out by both the Lions and Kinsmen Service Clubs.

Town Police have been advised of Council's concern regarding speeding and tire squealing by some motorists in town. Mufflers on some automobiles do not conform to the Motor Vehicle Act. Also loud and undue noise in some areas of town, especially during nights, are described as a Public Nuisance and a Public Disturbance. Police may take action in these cases where residents lodge complaints, if the complaints are willing to testify in Court. The Police Commission also discussed the possibility of instituting a curfew in the Town of Redwater. However, to enforce such a bylaw, the Town would have to hire a bylaw officer for this and other bylaws.

Gas Supply: With the gas problems that occurred last winter, it became obvious that a new source of gas supply had to be looked into. There are strong indications that the Town will be tied in with the new outlet before winter sets in.

Traffic Bylaw: New 30 degree angle parking stalls (as approved by a joint committee of three Redwater businessmen and the Police Commission) have been painted on downtown streets and it is hoped that citizens will soon be accustomed to this improved and safer method of angle parking. Work is proceeding on the balance of street signs to be erected. Citizens are reminded of the No Parking restrictions on the south side of 50th Avenue from 51 Street to 47 Street. Crosswalk signs and lights are to be erected at 48 Street and 48 Avenue and at 48 Avenue and 54 Street.

Senior Citizens: The town has made two applications to Alberta Housing Corporation: one application for a 12-unit extension to the present Golden Villa, and another application for a Senior Citizens' Lodge. As to the operation of the Lodge, a study will have to be made based on the regional survey. Based on this survey, a detailed application for approval will then be made to the Sturgeon Foundation.

Further Adult Education: The Sturgeon Further Education Council has recently completed a "Needs Assessment Survey" for the Town of Redwater and one of their representatives has interviewed respondents to their questionnaire. More news on this topic will be published as council receives further information.

Summer Student Employment Program (STEP): Students have been employed under this program to carry out some town work. The town has also employed personnel to operate the swimming pool.

Street Lights: Council has approved that Calgary Power install 14 street lights on 58 Street (road north of the Hospital) at no capital charge to the town. The monthly charge for these lights will be $10.60 per light.

Weed Control: Warning notices were mailed by the town to owners of property that was badly infested with weeds. Where owners did not heed the warning, the town had the weeds cut and added this charge on to the owner's tax bill.

Town Council Meetings: A new item on the agenda for each council meeting is "Questions from the Floor" which allows any citizen of Redwater to raise any question with council concerning the town's operation. Residents are requested to take note of Part 111 of Bylaw No. 408 - Proceedings at Meetings, Section 2 (a): A person or a representative of any delegation or group of persons, who wishes to bring any matter to the attention of council, or who wishes to have any matter considered by the council shall address a letter or other communication to the council outlining the subject to be discussed. The letter shall be typewritten or legibly written, signed by the correct name of the writer, delivered or mailed to the office of the Municipal Administrator so that it arrives at least at 12 o'clock noon on the Thursday immediately preceding the Please Turn to Page 40

His people feel their loss

A people's priest prepares to leave his parish

By Shirley Jamison

"I always knew I would come to Morinville," said Father Primeau, seated relaxed in casual clothes in his comfortable, somewhat cluttered study. "I knew it."

You have loved this beautiful old church for a long time, I suggested. "Yes." He did not elaborate, that is not his way. Only his expression and the tone of voice in that one word revealed how deep is that love.

It was a long circuitous route that brought Georges Primeau to St. Jean Baptiste parish near the end of January in 1966.

Born in St. Paul, Alberta in 1916, the son of J. E. Primeau, a merchant, Georges was one of six children, four girls and two boys. Following his schooling he began his studies at the Jesuit College in Edmonton, going on to St. Joseph's seminary to train as a diocesan priest. He was ordained by Bishop Hugh John MacDonald in St. Joseph's Cathedral on September 19, 1944.

Father Primeau's first posting was to St. Emile's parish in Legal where he served four years as assistant to Father Emile Tessier. "It would be a small parish to have an assistant," I observed. "Ah - but in those days there were many priests."

His first posting as parish priest was to LaCorey, north of Bonnevillie, where he stayed two years before going to Mellaig, 20 miles north of St. Paul. After eight years he was sent back to Legal in 1958. During his eight years there Father Primeau took interest in all the affairs of the community and in 1965 organized the first Fete au Village celebration, which was rained out.

But that wasn't the only calamity. Someone reported to the Westlock detachment that games of chance were being played on Sunday. As manager of the festival Father Primeau faced a raid by the Mounties, and the games were shut down. This was news, and an Edmonton Journal reporter championed Father Primeau in a front page story, headed "Legal Priest Accuses Mounties." I tried to kill that article, said Father Primeau, but I couldn't. The following Friday he found himself in the office of the Attorney General, and on the Monday he was sent to the commanding officer of the RCMP.

At the time," said Father Primeau, people visiting the Game Farm or the Zoo on Sunday had to pay to get in - but Legal couldn't do that - even though money raised at Fete au Village was all used to help the community." In the end all was resolved and the annual festival has grown and prospered and contributed greatly to many village projects.

Over his 12 years in Morinville the practical priest, who calls himself a "day to day opportunist," has continued his policy of active involvement in the affairs of the community. One of his first tasks was to re-organize the Frontier Daze celebration which had just begun in 1965.

A PRIEST MUST GO TO HIS PEOPLE

"People used to come to their priest - but those days are gone - finished! You don't sit in a rectory and expect to see people, you must go and meet people in the community, make contacts.

Father Primeau does not feel there is a great difference in today's young people. Every generation of adults has criticized the young, going far back in history, he said. I do not notice a big difference as a priest involved in community affairs. They do the ordinary things you expect them to do, according to the Society which has produced them.

We spoke a little about the coming conclave to elect a new Pope, and Father Primeau said he supported the change in attitude which came about under Pope John. "The church became less legalistic, more human," he commented. "For some this made it harder than when I started as a Priest - they could not longer feel entirely comfortable if they followed merely the letter of the law. But many younger people were encouraged by the more open attitude of the church, and it gives the bishops greater opportunities to fulfill their essential role.

As for the conclave - "one thing is certain - nobody can guess who the new Pope will be." Three days later Father Primeau was proven correct.

"Had you not chosen the priesthood," I suggested, "you could have had a successful career in the business world." "Yes," he replied, "I have been told on more than one occasion that I could have been a millionaire."

"But what is money?" he added. "Perhaps," I suggested, "it is the natural accumulation of people in the parable of the talents."

But Father Primeau's goals lie elsewhere.

Despite his frankness - his direct and forthright way of speaking - his ready wit and his consistent involvement in the community, one senses the spirituality which is for him a most personal anchor, and one he is not given to discuss. It is the essence of the man.

A DREAM BECOMES A REALITY FOR PLACE ST. JEAN BAPTISTE

That spiritual commitment however has been translated for all to see during his years in Morinville - in the work of restoring his beloved church. A work Father Primeau set about in his own fashion, using his particular abilities to solve difficulties through a practical, commonsense approach.

Characteristically, it began in his first year, with the planning in 1966, for the early stages of his dream for Place St. Jean Baptiste. In 1971 he was able to arrange the purchase of four acres of additional land for the parish, and in the years that followed was successful in having the church and convent buildings recognized and protected as an historic site.

Clearly Father Primeau believes that the Lord helps those who help themselves. With loving care and energetic work he supervised each phase of the restoration, down to the least detail. Local contractors were engaged and local volunteers were employed in every way possible. A visitor in 1977 might well find his parish priest at work on the roof of the church, rectory or recreation centre. Low bid for the three roofing projects was $92,000, but with government grants and volunteer help the actual cost to the parish was reduced to $4,000.

Nothing was left undone. Artifacts were restored - the church bells were electrified - furnishings were repaired and polished, exterior lighting was installed for the church and rectory grounds, a new altar and lectern were installed.

After the "Filles de Jesus" order left the convent in 1973 his efforts, along with those of others in the community and in governments were successful in converting the convent to a historical and culture centre for Morinville.

"The help and co-operation I received from the Alberta Legislature is something I was grateful for," said Father Primeau. "Not for myself - but I truly was so grateful for that."

"It seems to me that you made it happen," I said. "How many priests visit the Legislature often and present their concerns, while at the same time committing as much personal planning and work?" He admitted being a frequent visitor to the Legislature - "perhaps politics also, might have been a career." He has become a good friend of the Hon. Horst Schmid.

The cemetery also must be restored. Again the help of volunteers was enlisted and today, with the old cemetery completely torn down and rebuilt, and a new section added, he thinks the cemetery may be unique in Alberta in its design. Families contributed at $25 each, and government grants were available under a special program. "Would you believe the parish actually made money on the deal?" Yes, I would.

"In all of those projects - using all those volunteers - so much inexperienced help," he said, "we never had an accident. Pete Gibeau supervised, but still the only injury was one bruised thumb - of mine." The thought was not expressed, but it was there, in the air - was someone watching over the restoration?

The result of this loving work restoring the historical old church, the rectory and convent, cemetery and grounds is a beautiful Place St. Jean Baptiste which will be a source of inspiration for all who visit there for generations to come.

And through all the time that the restoration of the Place Jean Baptiste was taking place, this energetic priest never ceased his involvement in the community and the work of the parish. Helping with the Knights of Columbus and the Christian Ladies, with the Recreation Board and the Library, the celebration of the 75th Anniversary of the Parish, planting trees, serving on the A.C.F.A. Regional Council. He was a citizen of the year and one suspects almost equally pleased with an award as "Overseer of the Stercoraceous Engineer Certificate (Euphemism: Toilet Cleaner) for his engineering of the water and sewer work on the Frontier Daze site

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE

Mayor Stapleton, on the occasion of Father Primeau's election as citizen of the year had this to say: "He considers it a privilege to serve his community, and he has succeeded in awakening a like spirit in his fellowmen. Father taught us that the members of a community can be closely knit in bonds of Christian charity only by that togetherness both in work and play."

And now it is time for Father Primeau to say goodbye to Morinville and take up his duties in Thorild parish. "Did you think of retiring?" "I am too young to retire," he said, "but I hope to when I am 65." (Three years away).

The people of Morinville had petitioned to have Father Primeau stay. "I could have resigned," he said, "but what good would that do?" Precisely. One knows that in the years left to him there is much good that that "people's priest" can do - will do.

In this community, where Father Primeau has given so much of himself, many heartfelt prayers will be offered that he may end his days within the fold of St. Jean Baptiste Church, his earthly spiritual home.

FATHER GEORGES PRIMEAU

Morinville bids farewell to Father Primeau

By Margaret Yacysen

On Sunday evening August 27 Morinville residents paid tribute to Father Primeau who is leaving St. Jean Baptiste Parish after 12 years as pastor.

The Morinville Historical and Cultural Society hosted a special dinner for Father Primeau and some of the government dignitaries who have worked with him over the years. The guests included the Honorable Horst Schmid, Minister of Culture; Mr. Walter Cassa, assistant deputy of Culture; Judge and Mrs. R. Belzil; MLA Gordon Taylor; MLA Ernie Jamison and his wife Shirley; United Church Minister Reverend Don Brown and representatives from Morinville Town Council, School Board, Parish Council and others.

On behalf of the Historical and Cultural Society, Father Primeau was presented with a framed etching of the 1909 portion of the old convent. Father has been an executive member of the Historical Society and will continue to remain on the board even after his transfer to Thorild.

The Honorable Horst Schmid presented Father Primeau with an etching of the legislative buildings. He also made an official announcement that the convent has been proclaimed a historic site.

#524 STURGEON AIR CADETS

The squadron left for Moncton, N.B. on Saturday evening, August 26, despite the strikes (and non-strikes) affecting Air Canada. The exchange visit was arranged under the auspices of the Department of the Secretary of State and its program "Open House Canada." The chairman of the sponsoring committee, Mrs. Evelyn Hutchings has worked tirelessly throughout the past week and her efforts to obtain alternate means of travel for the squadron have been successful.

While in Moncton, plans have been made for us to visit parks, museums, the university, and take a ferry trip to Prince Edward Island where we will visit the home of "Anne of Green Gables" in Cavendish National Park and the Legislative House in Charlottetown. Cadets will also have several opportunities for picnicking, swimming and shopping. The squadron will be accompanied by six chaperones, Captain J. McHardy, Training Officer Acting Captain Ed Mortimer and Administration Officer OC Joyce Porsild, Committee Chairman Mrs. E. Hutchings.

Redwater Cadet receives Glider Wings

JAMES MCCOLEMAN

James and Jeanie McColeman watched proudly as their son Air Cadet Cpl. James Allan McColeman of Sturgeon Squadron 524 received his Glider Pilot wings, August 18 at Rivers, Manitoba. A graduation parade and banquet marked the culmination of seven weeks of gruelling study and training. He logged nearly 12 hours flying time, (six hours duo, five and three quarter hours solo). Ten hours only is required. As well as flying he studied ground procedure, navigation and Theory of Flight with exams after each course. He now holds an aeronautical radio license and glider pilot license. Congratulations Jim!

Secretary Treasurer Mrs. D. Noga, and Publicity Chairman Mrs. Julie Saunders. The squadron will return on Sunday, September 3.

Nine cadets from Bon Accord will be making the trip. They are Darlene St. Germaine, Francois Dourte, Patrick Tighe, David and Tim Milligan, Derek Stobbs, Alan Saunders, Royal Samis and Mike White.

Cadets from Gibbons who will be going on the exchange visit include Trent McHardy, Doug McHardy, Sandra Porsild, Charnie Porsild, Pat McCormack, Cathy Wood, Annette Pyle, Michelle Pyle, Kevin Noga, Sandra Kennedy, Carolyn Hutchings, Fred Hutchings, Darlene Lange, Diane Lehman and Glenda Grant.

Redwater Report

Customers are startled when they walk into Mayfair Foods to see part of the store missing. The whole west wall has been removed and the store is being extended into the vacated Home Improvement Village premises to give the store 2,000 extra square feet. The present area is 3,600 sq. ft. Expansion will give 5,600 sq. ft. of store space in the hope of adding more variety and lines of merchandise.

"The town has grown so much," Art Krauskopf says

"we decided we should expand too."

The garbage truck has not been able to pick up garbage in the area of 52 Avenue and 48 Street, due to construction there, but one citizen of Redwater is a good neighbour. He loaded the accumulated garbage on his pickup truck and hauled it away. This kindly, neighborly gesture is much appreciated. From those who benefitted from your good deed, Les Parsons a sincere thank you, and a Happy 65th Birthday.

The first butcher shop at Gibbons

By Margarette J. Atkinson

During the 20's and early 30's, Norman Knott ran Knott Bros. Garage and Butcher Shop. These were located on the main street of Gibbons. The garage was at the extreme west end on the south side of the street and the butcher shop or meat market in modern parlance, just east of the garage.

The "dray-wagon," which Tom Holmes owned used to pull up to unload the great sides of beef, pork and other cuts. These had been unloaded from the baggage car of the passenger train pulled by steam locomotive.

Norman and Tom would take the meats into the big thick-walled, cooler where great metal hooks, hung around the place. A big hardwood meat cutting table stood in the centre.

There was no electricity, natural gas, propane or running water then. A great thick hardwood door, sealed the cooler. Blocks of ice which had been cut during winter covered with sawdust were placed in the walls.

The main part of the butcher shop had glass, display cases along the west side of the store. In these, were white enamelled trays of cold rolls of bologna, as well as trays of wieners and sausages, pieces of liver and other assorted displays. Norman had a big cutting table near the scales in the south-west corner where saws, cleavers, knives and sharpeners hung.

Meats such as wieners and cold cuts were not packaged in those days, as plastics had not yet been invented, but, oh, were they delicious! They didn't spoil as easily as meats do now. You could pack wieners into a brown paper bag, along with freshly homemade buns and have a wiener roast by evening and not one wiener would be sticky or spoiled.

The same applied to bacon. You bought part of a side of bacon, which hung recovered on a hook in the cooler. It never spoiled or moulded at home, even without refrigerators.

One day, just after the gypsies camped at Gibbons, a fat, elderly gypsy woman with her bright skirt and colorful blouse and head band appeared. Incongruously attired in seven petticoats she decided to stage a "hold up." Just as I approached the butcher shop there she was -- pressing Norman back with her big belly. To my astonishment, she took his money which she slipped into a big pocket in one of her seven petticoats!

It was sure handy, having Norman Knott there. If our Mom didn't approve a cut of meat, back it went. He always obliged in every way.

I can recall the wooden boxes, which were similar in size to Mandarin orange boxes of smoked dried herrings. We used to carry a few in a pocket, during the winter, while out coasting down the river hill.

The combined chores of running a garage, being an implement dealer for the farmers, and running the butcher shop, kept Norman on the hop.

But that was the first Butcher Shop at Gibbons.

News of Gibbons Farmers' Market

Thursday, August 31, will be a busy day for the Gibbons Farmers' Market. In addition to the regular supply of fresh produce there will be two demonstrations, both practical and interesting, and a flea market.

John Soldan will be on hand all evening to show his skill in hooking rugs. Several of his pieces will be on hand for display or sale.

Microwave oven cooking will be the topic of the second exhibit. This will be a good demonstration to take in if you are thinking of owning one of these appliances, or have questions regarding recipes or techniques with your own oven.

For those of you who are doing fall clean-up the Market provides a chance to trade or sell unused articles for fun or profit. Call Stella Langier, 923-2395, if you want a table reserved.

The last movie for this season will be "Sammy, the Wayout Seal."

On September 7, Pat Doerksen will give some ideas and recipes for cooking with all our vegetables.

CRAFT SALE

Farewell to Father Primeau

MASS CELEBRATED

Following the dinner Father Primeau celebrated his final Mass at St. Jean Baptiste Church. His sermon was a very moving one in which he extended his gratitude to all his parishioners for their support. Reverend Don Brown then spoke of how Father Primeau showed great care for all those around him especially by his community involvement.

The evening was completed by an open house with special presentations at the Recreation Centre. Speakers included Ross Quinn representing the Town of Morinville, Yvonne Leduc representing the Thibeault School Board, Dorothy Daignault representing the Rendezvous Club, and the Parish Altar Boys. Master of ceremonies John Saunders also introduced special guest speakers, Honorable Horst Schmid, Deputy Minister Walter Cassa, MLA Ernie Jamison, MP Peter Elzinga, and MLA Gordon Taylor.

Ken Saunders then presented Father Primeau with a china cabinet and gift of seven thousand dollars. The china cabinet was given on behalf of parishioners and friends while the money gift was contributed to by the entire community.

Other organizations, including the Knights of Columbus and Christian Ladies, had given Father their farewell gifts previously and these were on display. In addition, the Parish Council had taken Father Primeau out for dinner recently and had presented him with an engraved gold watch.

Alberta landlords to organize

A registry of Alberta landlords is being formed for the purpose of organizing a Province wide association of landlords and owners of rental properties. The objective of the association will be to provide an organization through which all landlords in the Province can be represented on matters pertaining to their basic rights, Landlord-Tenant legislation, and a host of other matters of importance to the apartment rental industry in general.

Dale E. Alsager, an Edmonton landlord and spokesman for the registry, expects registering over 20,000 landlords by the end of the summer. "An urgent need has grown for an organization to provide assistance to apartment owners - particularly the very small operators (which represent over 80% of the landlords in the Province)", says Mr. Alsager. "The organization will be geared to attract and meet the needs of the 'grass roots people' of the apartment industry. There are many instances in Alberta, where small landlords have suffered hardships, and in some severe cases, have been put out of business by unfair legislation, government bureaucracy and/or irresponsible tenants. The formation of a dynamic and aggressive association to meet these needs is long overdue," says Mr. Alsager. When fully established the Association will provide landlords - large or small - with advisory and legal services on landlord-tenant matters, a tenant reference service for landlords, and a stronger vehicle to monitor legislative changes affecting the industry.

Alberta's landlords (anyone who owns and rents out accommodation of any type) are encouraged to register, in confidence, with the Alberta Landlord Registry by mailing their name, address, phone number, address and legal description of their rental property to: Box 37, Site 1, R.R. 2, Ardrossan T0B 0E0, Alberta.

There is no charge to register.

Realtor offers unique listing service

A St. Albert resident, Fred Keim, has purchased from Home Realty, the rights to a Video Listing service. Fred, his wife Doris and St. Albert resident Tommy Johannson will be using the new multiple listing service through their office, Royce Realty.

for different real estate companies. In his new position as sales manager for Royce Realty he plans to use the new service to allow buyers the convenience of viewing listings in different parts of the city in Royce's viewing lounge or in the comfort of the buyers own residence. This procedure necessitates the personal viewing of only those homes which are of genuine interest to the buyer.

It also makes shopping by the out-of-town buyer much more convenient. Listings from several different firms mean a good idea of the current market can be easily attained and the buyer can view in a few minutes more listings than he could personally visit in days.

AUGUST 31 - SEPTEMBER 6

AQUARIUS - January 21 - February 19

You splash into the 21st century - with advanced ideas and a yen for modern timesavers. But reflect on the past. Possible skin problem on the weekend.

PISCES - February 20 - March 20

Some sacrifices necessary, but don't play the martyr. Appeal to mate's sense of humor. The arts in general are featured. Ideal time to begin a diet.

ARIES - March 21 - April 20

It's not that loved one is out of tune - just yawny because of other priorities. A little lonely with friends away? Friend's philosophy or lifestyle seems to change. Don't pry.

TAURUS - April 21 - May 22

Lucky cycle begins - a great time for starting any size job. Weekend has you helping friends through emotional obstacle courses. Possible legal wrangle on Tuesday.

GEMINI - May 23 - June 21

CANCER - June 22 - July 22

Great time for giving home a new appearance. Just the home - not yourself. The natural look is winning. Work pressures build - watch for friction with coworkers.

LEO - July 23 - August 22

Start of week is humdrum, and ideas backfire. But you're buoyant after the weekend. Lively time for unattached Leos - you're attracting with magnetic force.

VIRGO - August 23 - September 22

The trick is not to seek advice. Your own judgment's super, but you're easily persuaded. Good week for checking real estate, experimenting in the kitchen, and making up.

LIBRA - September 23 - October 22

Week has a feel of an O'Henry story, with surprises at every turn. Some moments of self-doubt. Reserve time for sheer relaxation, with no accompanying guilt.

SCORPIO - October 23 - November 21

Juicy news reaches you by the weekend - you blush! Singles: fine time for a frank discussion; marrieds: bad time for a showdown. Some financial gains on Wednesday.

SAGITTARIUS - November 22 - December 22

A mindbending week, with a series of mental puzzles. Heart too keeps active. However, back and feet might be troublesome. Clear family problems before they turn into feuds.

CAPRICORN - December 23 - January 20

Machines go on the blink, repairmen show up late, you could find yourself looking after a child. But with friendship, life's carefree. Romance is on the upswing.

BIRTHDAY THIS WEEK

Your healthy appetite for work is more than satisfied in November. For the sake of romance and health, be a little less finicky. Watch snap judgments in spring.

BORN THIS WEEK

August 31st, baseball star Ted Williams; September 1st, actress Yvonne DeCarlo; 2nd, Martha (Watergate) Mitchell; 3rd, actor Alan Ladd; 4th, industrialist Henry Ford II; 5th, actress Raquel Welch; 6th, military hero de Lafayette.
